The 17 Cities of Moab

Isaiah 15

A photograph of a desert landscape at sunset. In the foreground, a gnarled, leafless tree stands on the left. The middle ground is filled with low-lying desert shrubs and small trees. In the background, large, reddish-brown rock formations are silhouetted against a sky with soft, orange and purple clouds. The overall scene is arid and desolate.

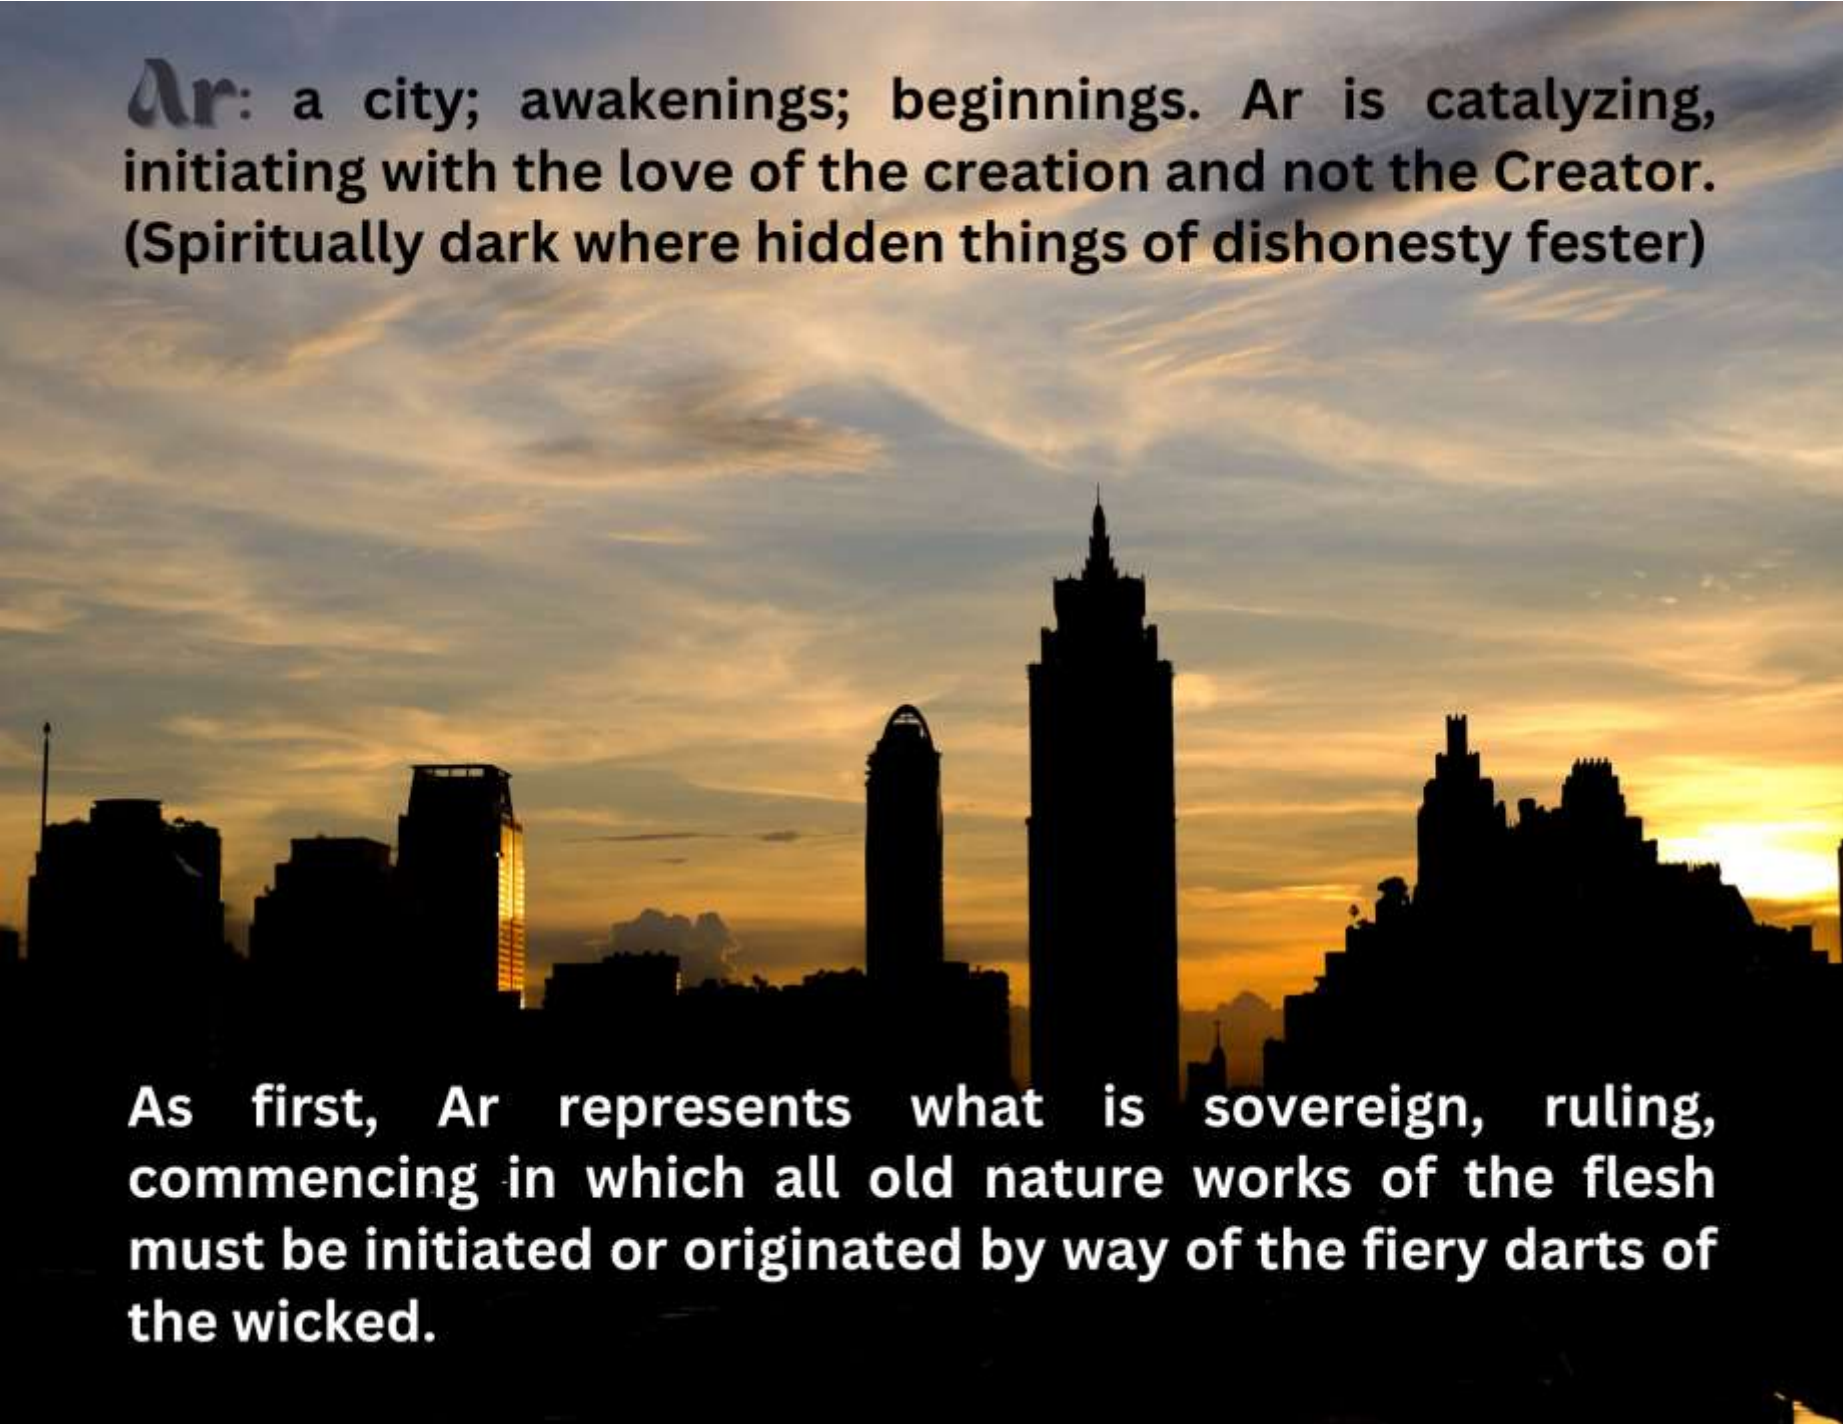

Moab : arid, dark nature; wasteful; wasteland, waste, nothingness (phaulous - unproductive evil). “Moab” illustrated wastefulness, unproductiveness; unprofitability are the fruits produced of a life satanically influenced in hatred against Jehovah Elohim. It also means seed, progeny, progeny of a father - so that we observe truths of Satan's legal ownership of humankind.

“Moab” representing the old nature; “Moab” being the incestuous father of filth, the incestuous unbelieving arid land of Moab, of enemies of Israel. These further aggregates must be especially appropriate in light of the accuser and a lot of the attacks of our Adversary as the accuser.

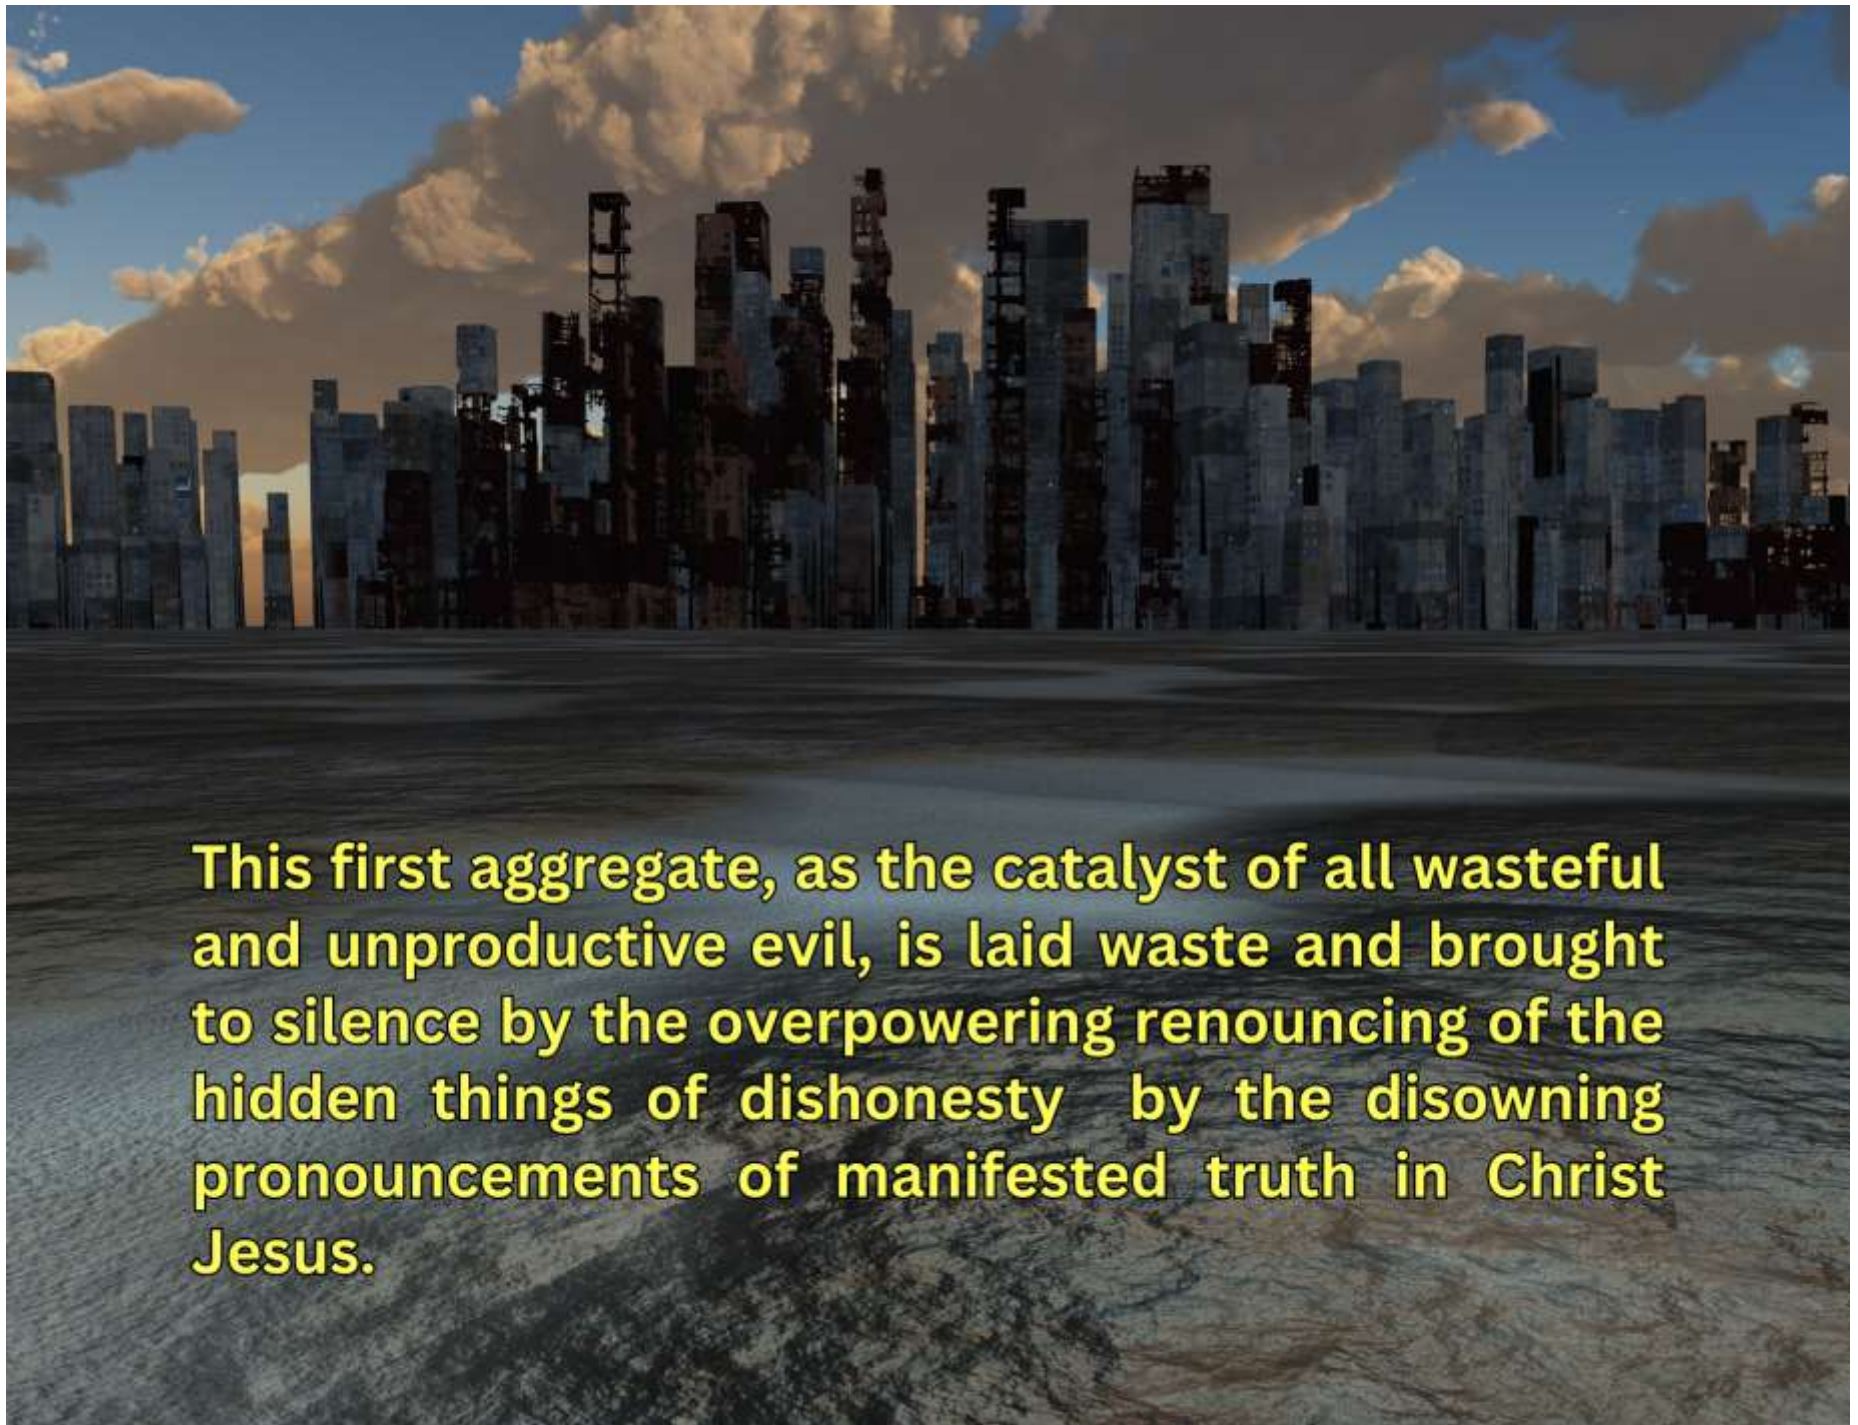

One of the great wiles of the Adversary is to overwhelm people with sin-consciousness, being enthralled with the old nature in its inadequacies before God.

Understanding the effectual power in speaking in tongues, to renounce that dark nature in its essences and putrid fruit, cuts off such manipulative machinations that we may confess as Job, “my righteousness I hold fast and will not let it go; I maintain [hold fast] mine own ways before Him” [Job 27:6; 13:15].

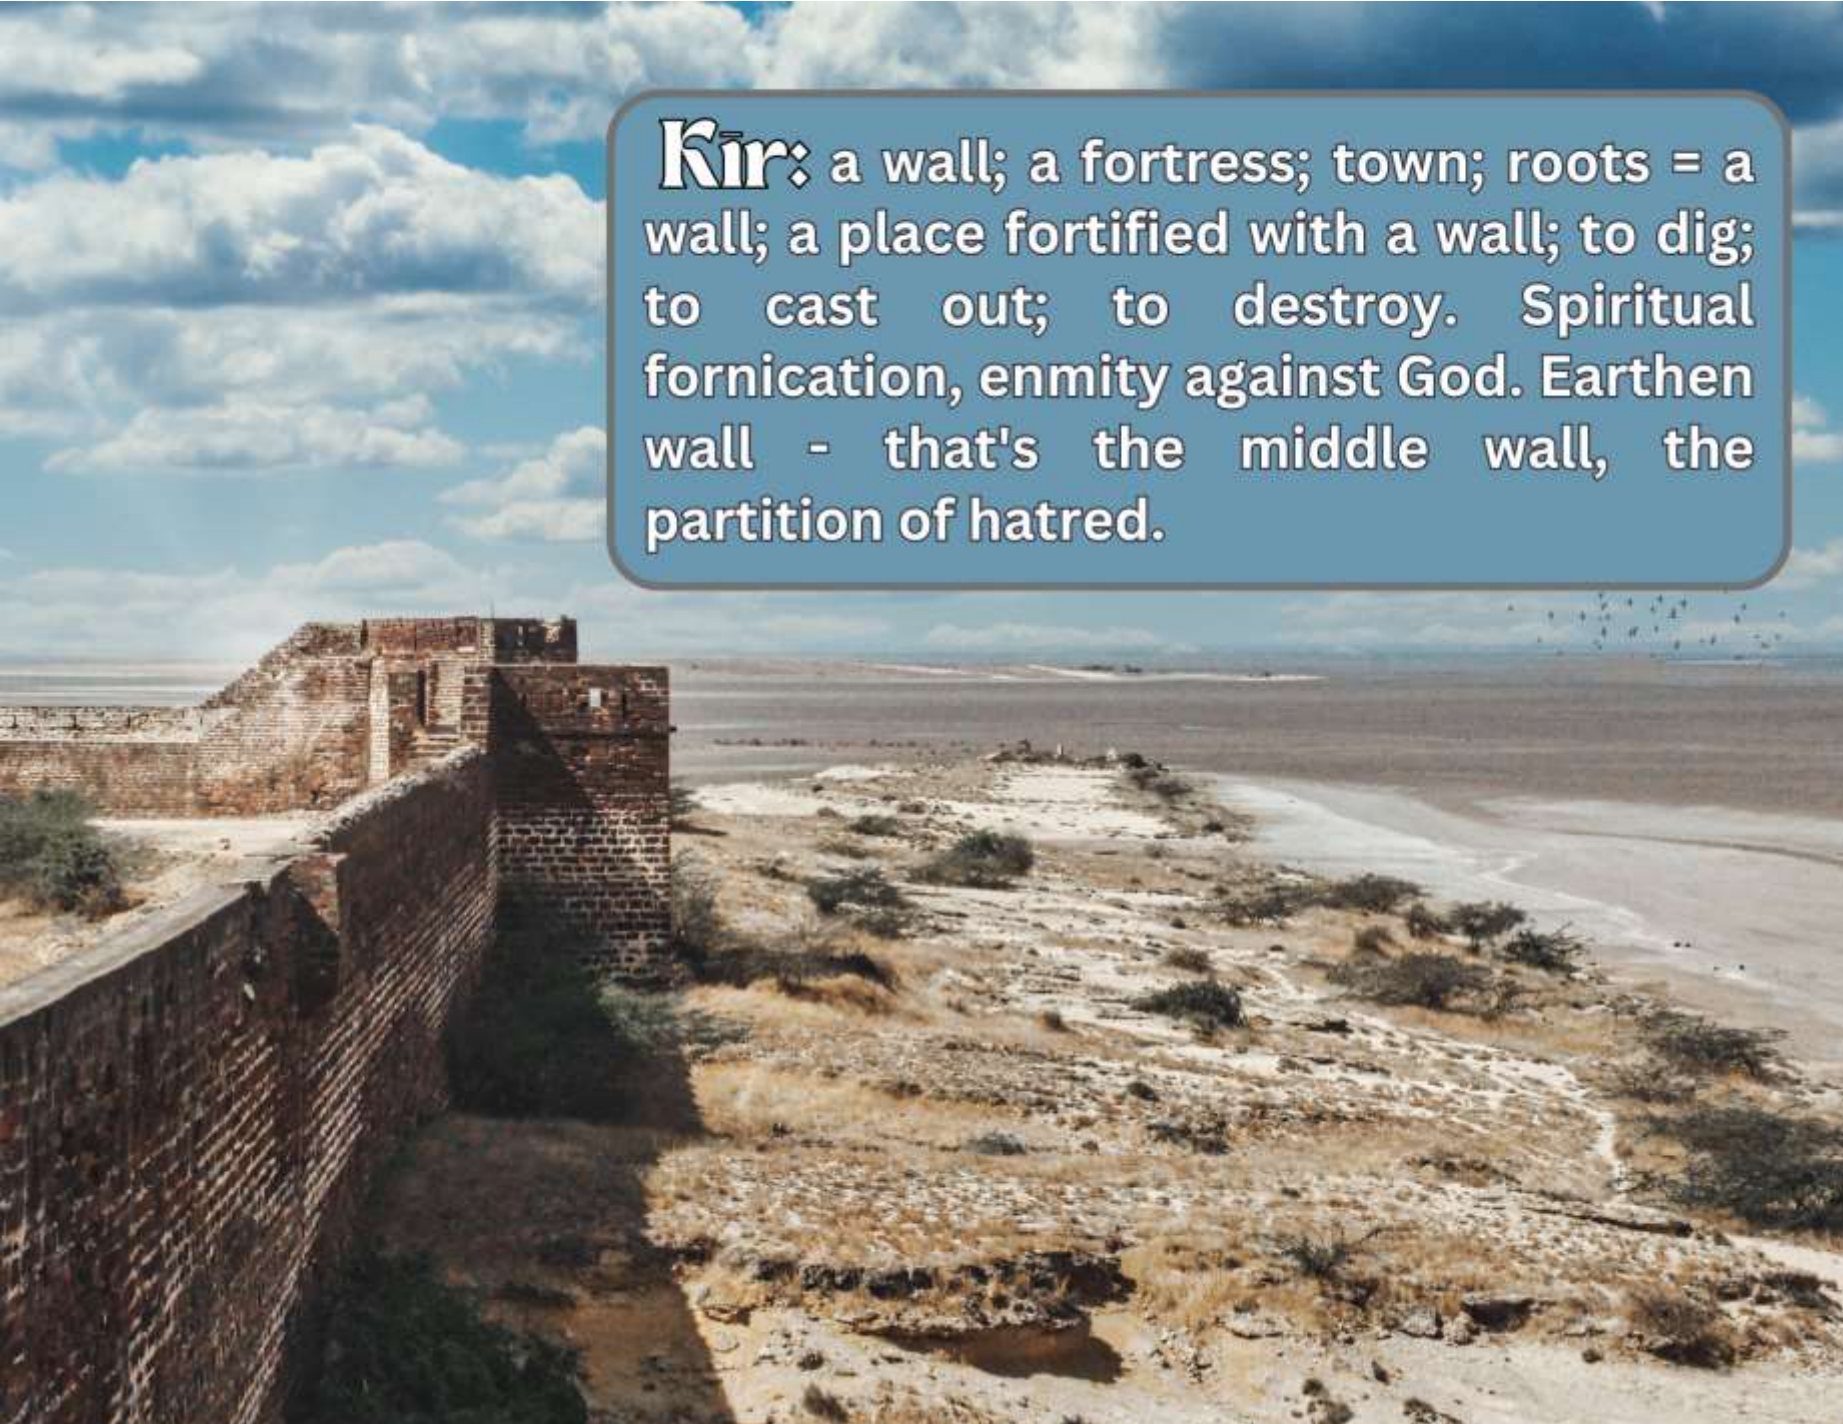

Ar: a city; awakenings; beginnings. Ar is catalyzing, initiating with the love of the creation and not the Creator. (Spiritually dark where hidden things of dishonesty fester)

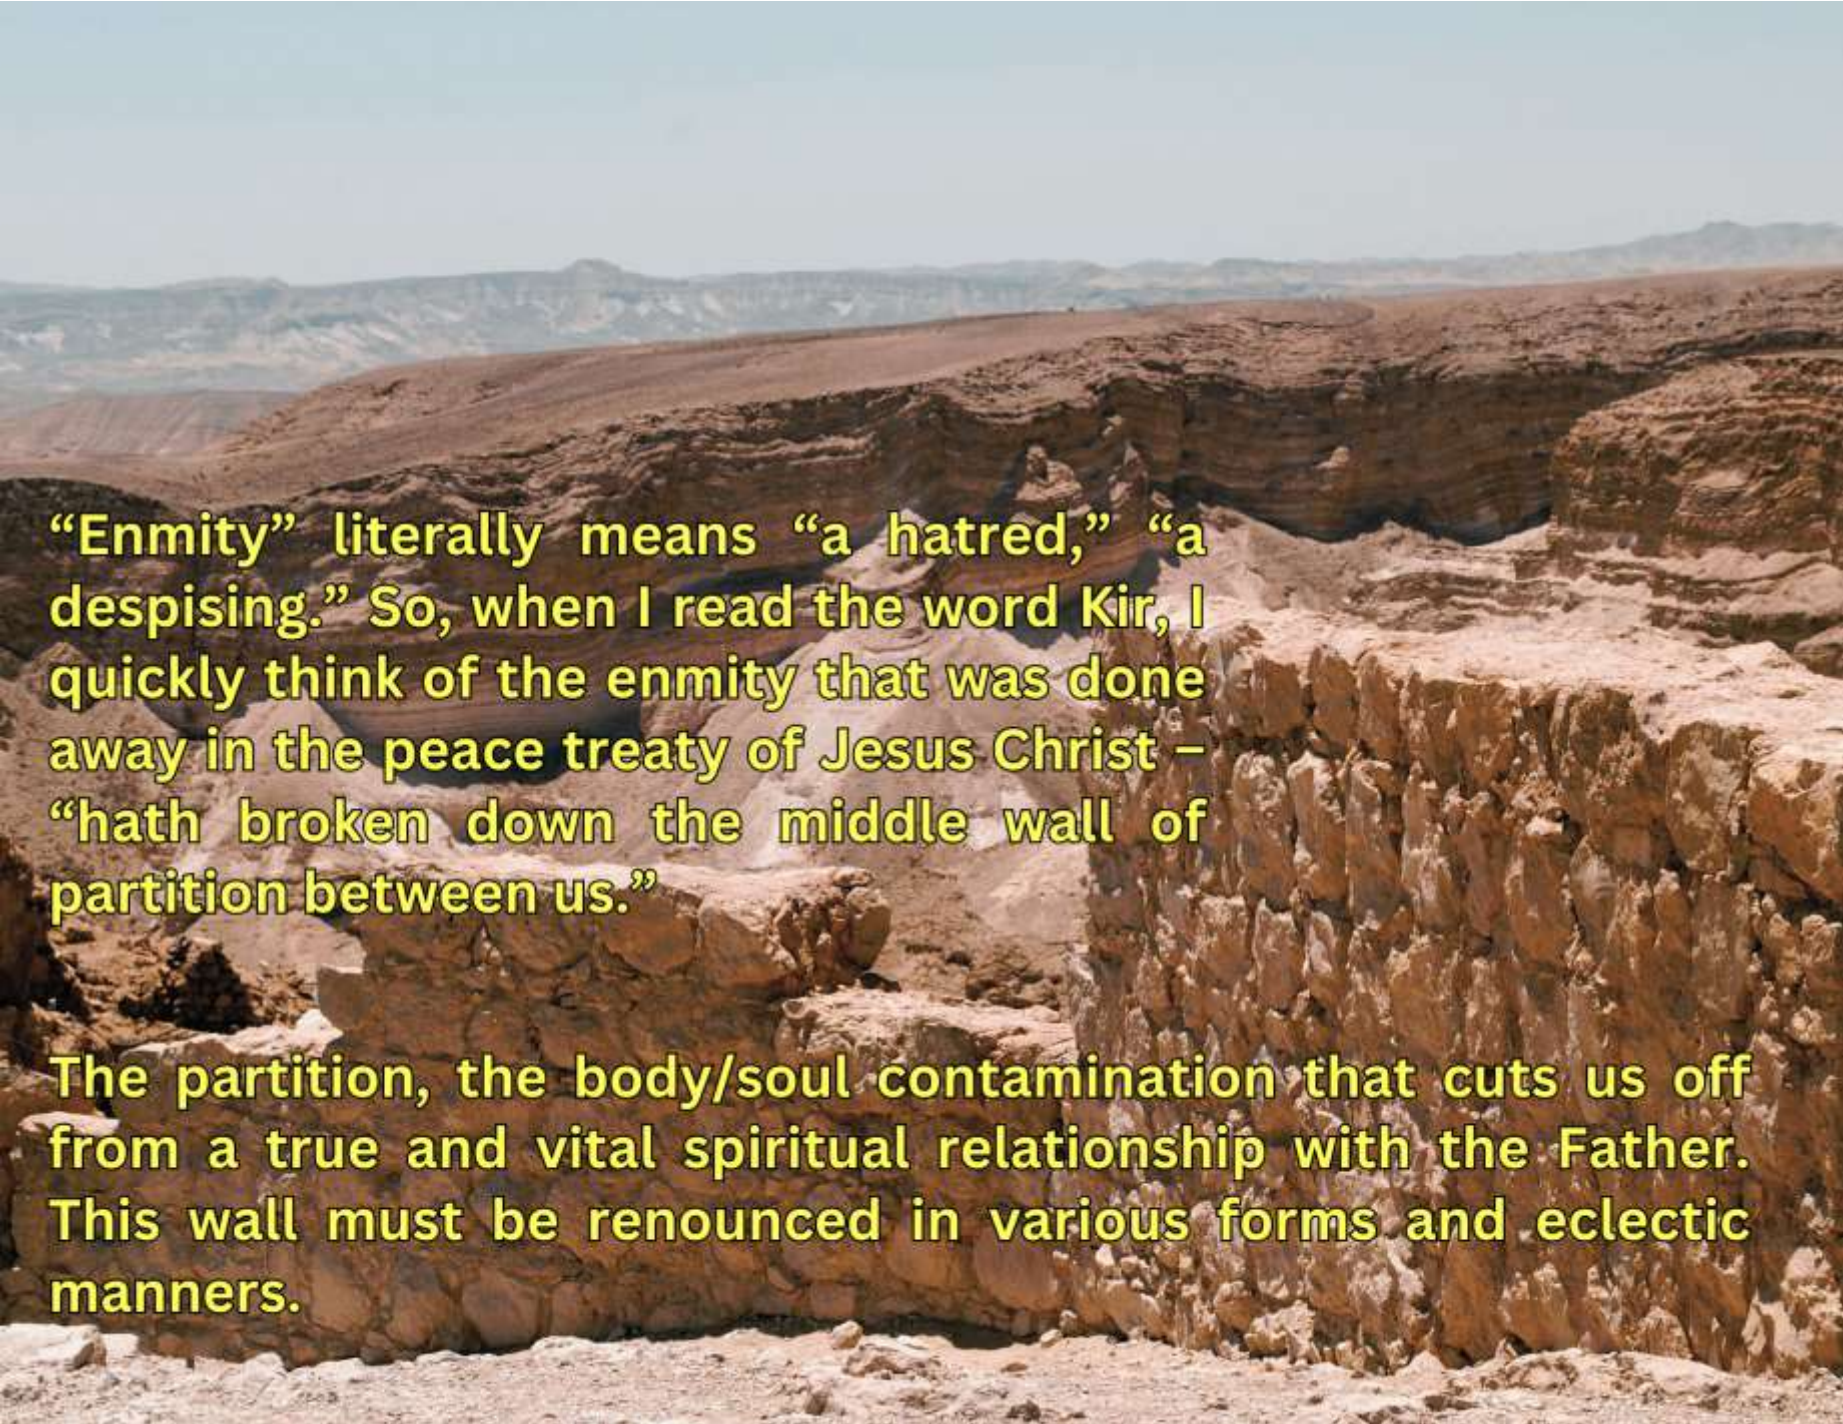

As first, Ar represents what is sovereign, ruling, commencing in which all old nature works of the flesh must be initiated or originated by way of the fiery darts of the wicked.

This first aggregate, as the catalyst of all wasteful and unproductive evil, is laid waste and brought to silence by the overpowering renouncing of the hidden things of dishonesty by the disowning pronouncements of manifested truth in Christ Jesus.

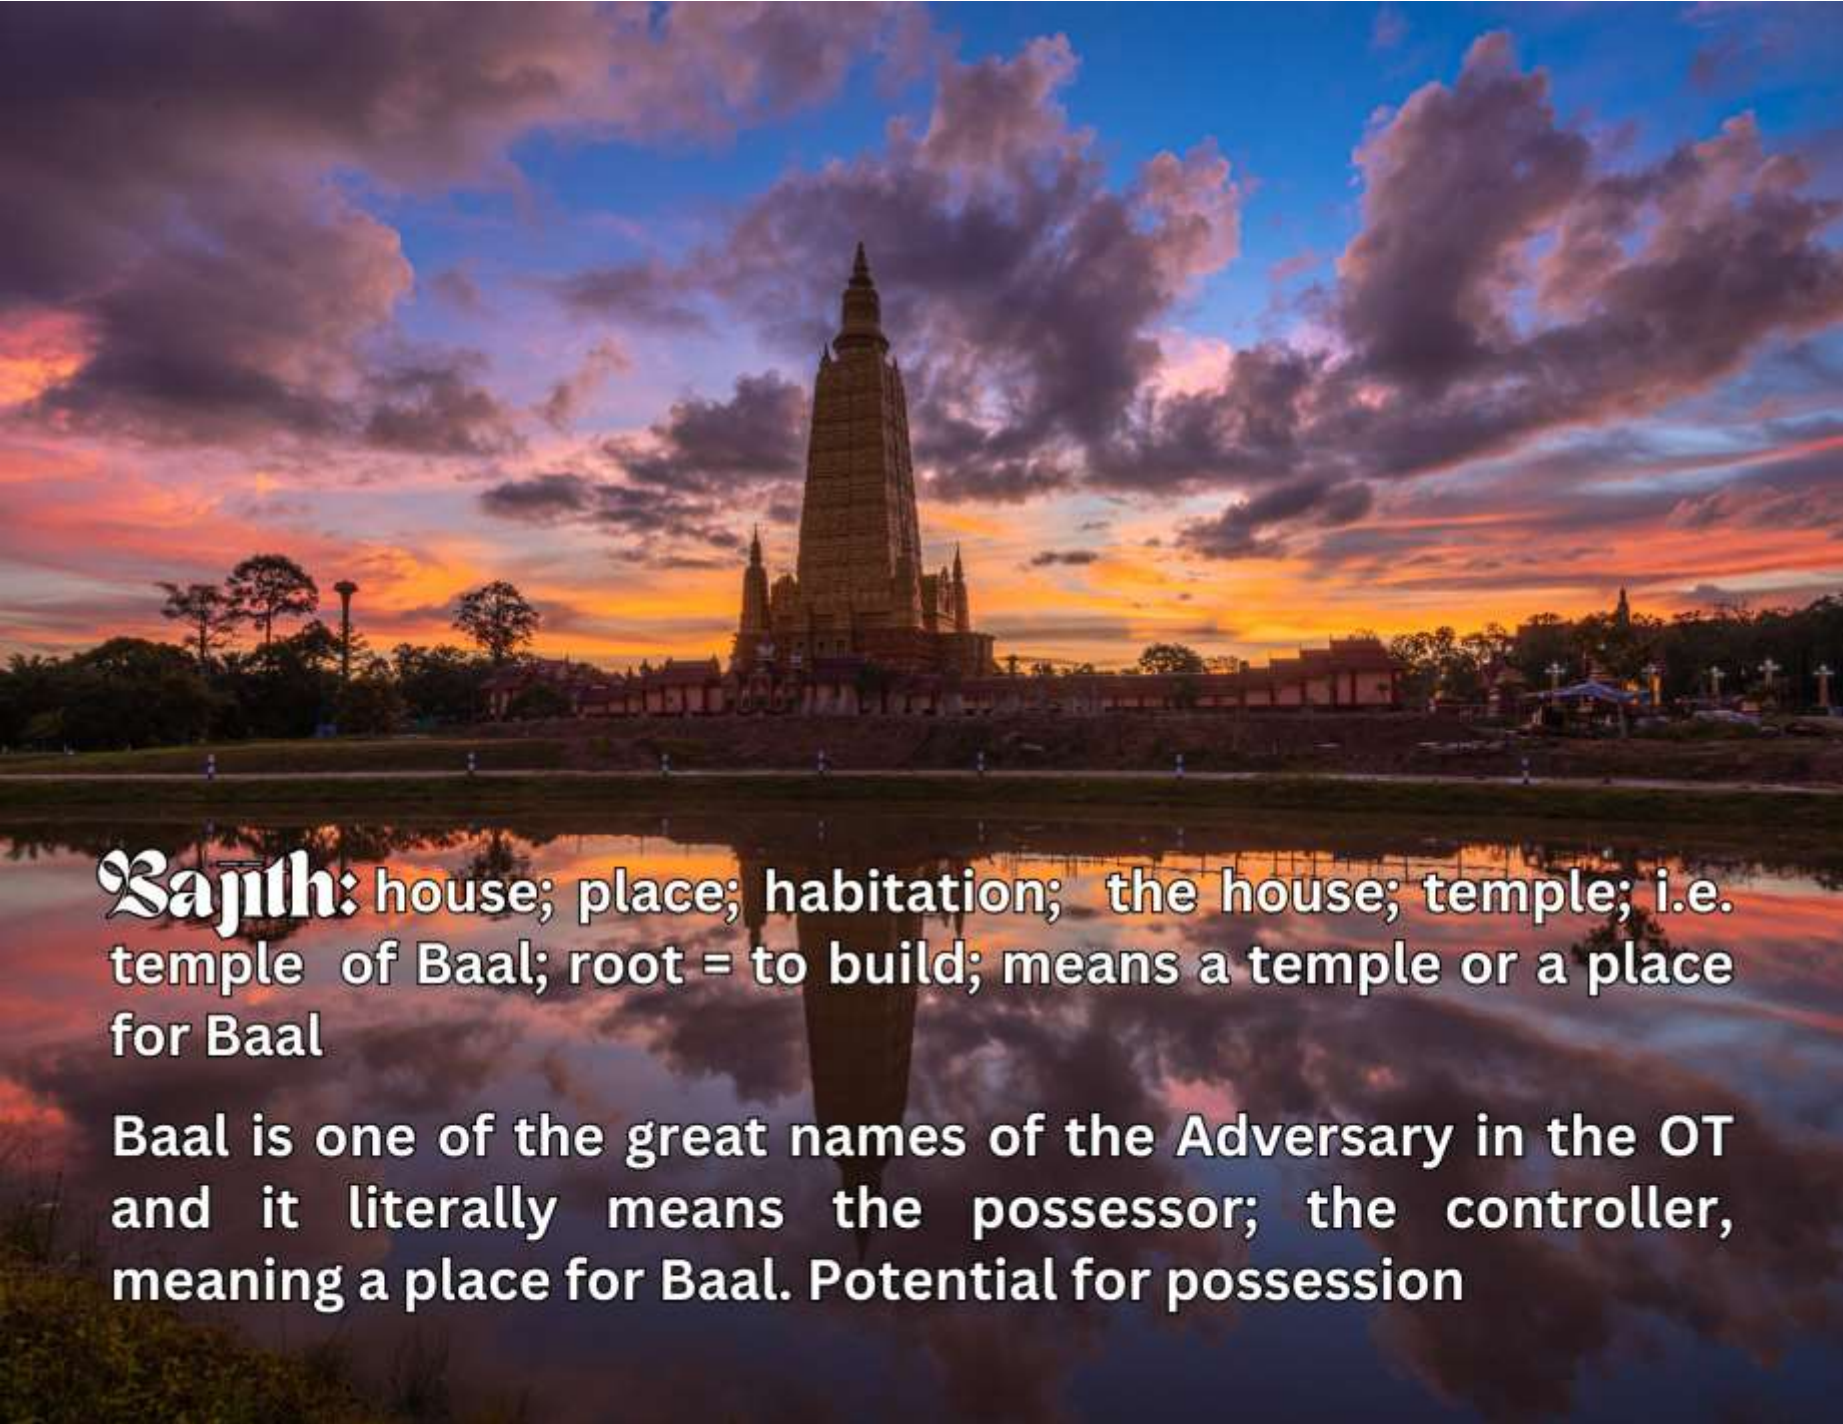

Kir: a wall; a fortress; town; roots = a wall; a place fortified with a wall; to dig; to cast out; to destroy. Spiritual fornication, enmity against God. Earthen wall - that's the middle wall, the partition of hatred.

A photograph of a desert landscape. In the foreground, there is a prominent, rough-hewn stone wall made of large, irregular blocks of reddish-brown stone. The wall appears to be part of an ancient structure, possibly a fortification or a partition. Beyond the wall, the terrain is a vast, arid plain with rolling hills and mountains in the distance under a clear, pale blue sky. The overall scene is one of a rugged, ancient desert environment.

“Enmity” literally means “a hatred,” “a despising.” So, when I read the word Kir, I quickly think of the enmity that was done away in the peace treaty of Jesus Christ – “hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us.”

The partition, the body/soul contamination that cuts us off from a true and vital spiritual relationship with the Father. This wall must be renounced in various forms and eclectic manners.

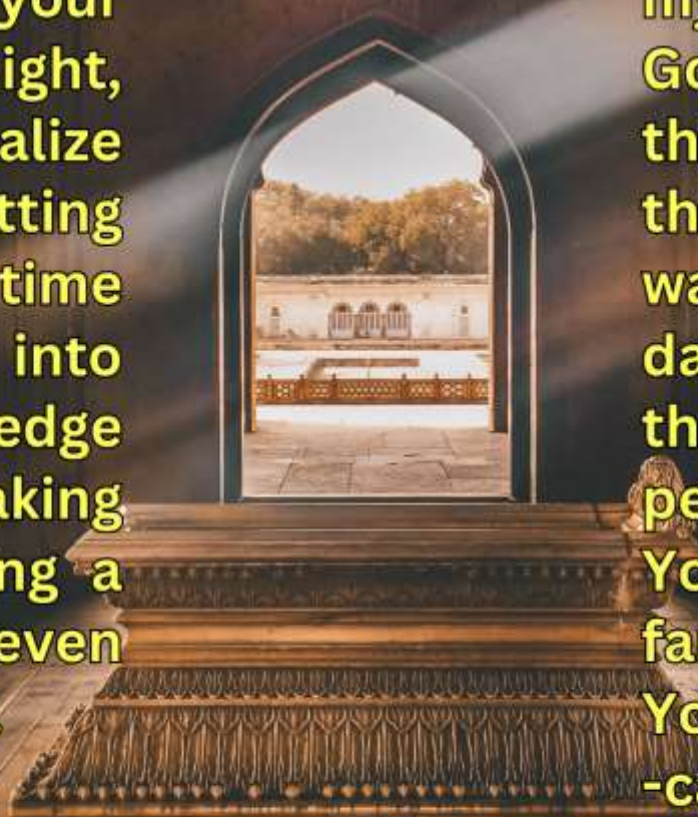

Bajith: house; place; habitation; the house; temple; i.e. temple of Baal; root = to build; means a temple or a place for Baal

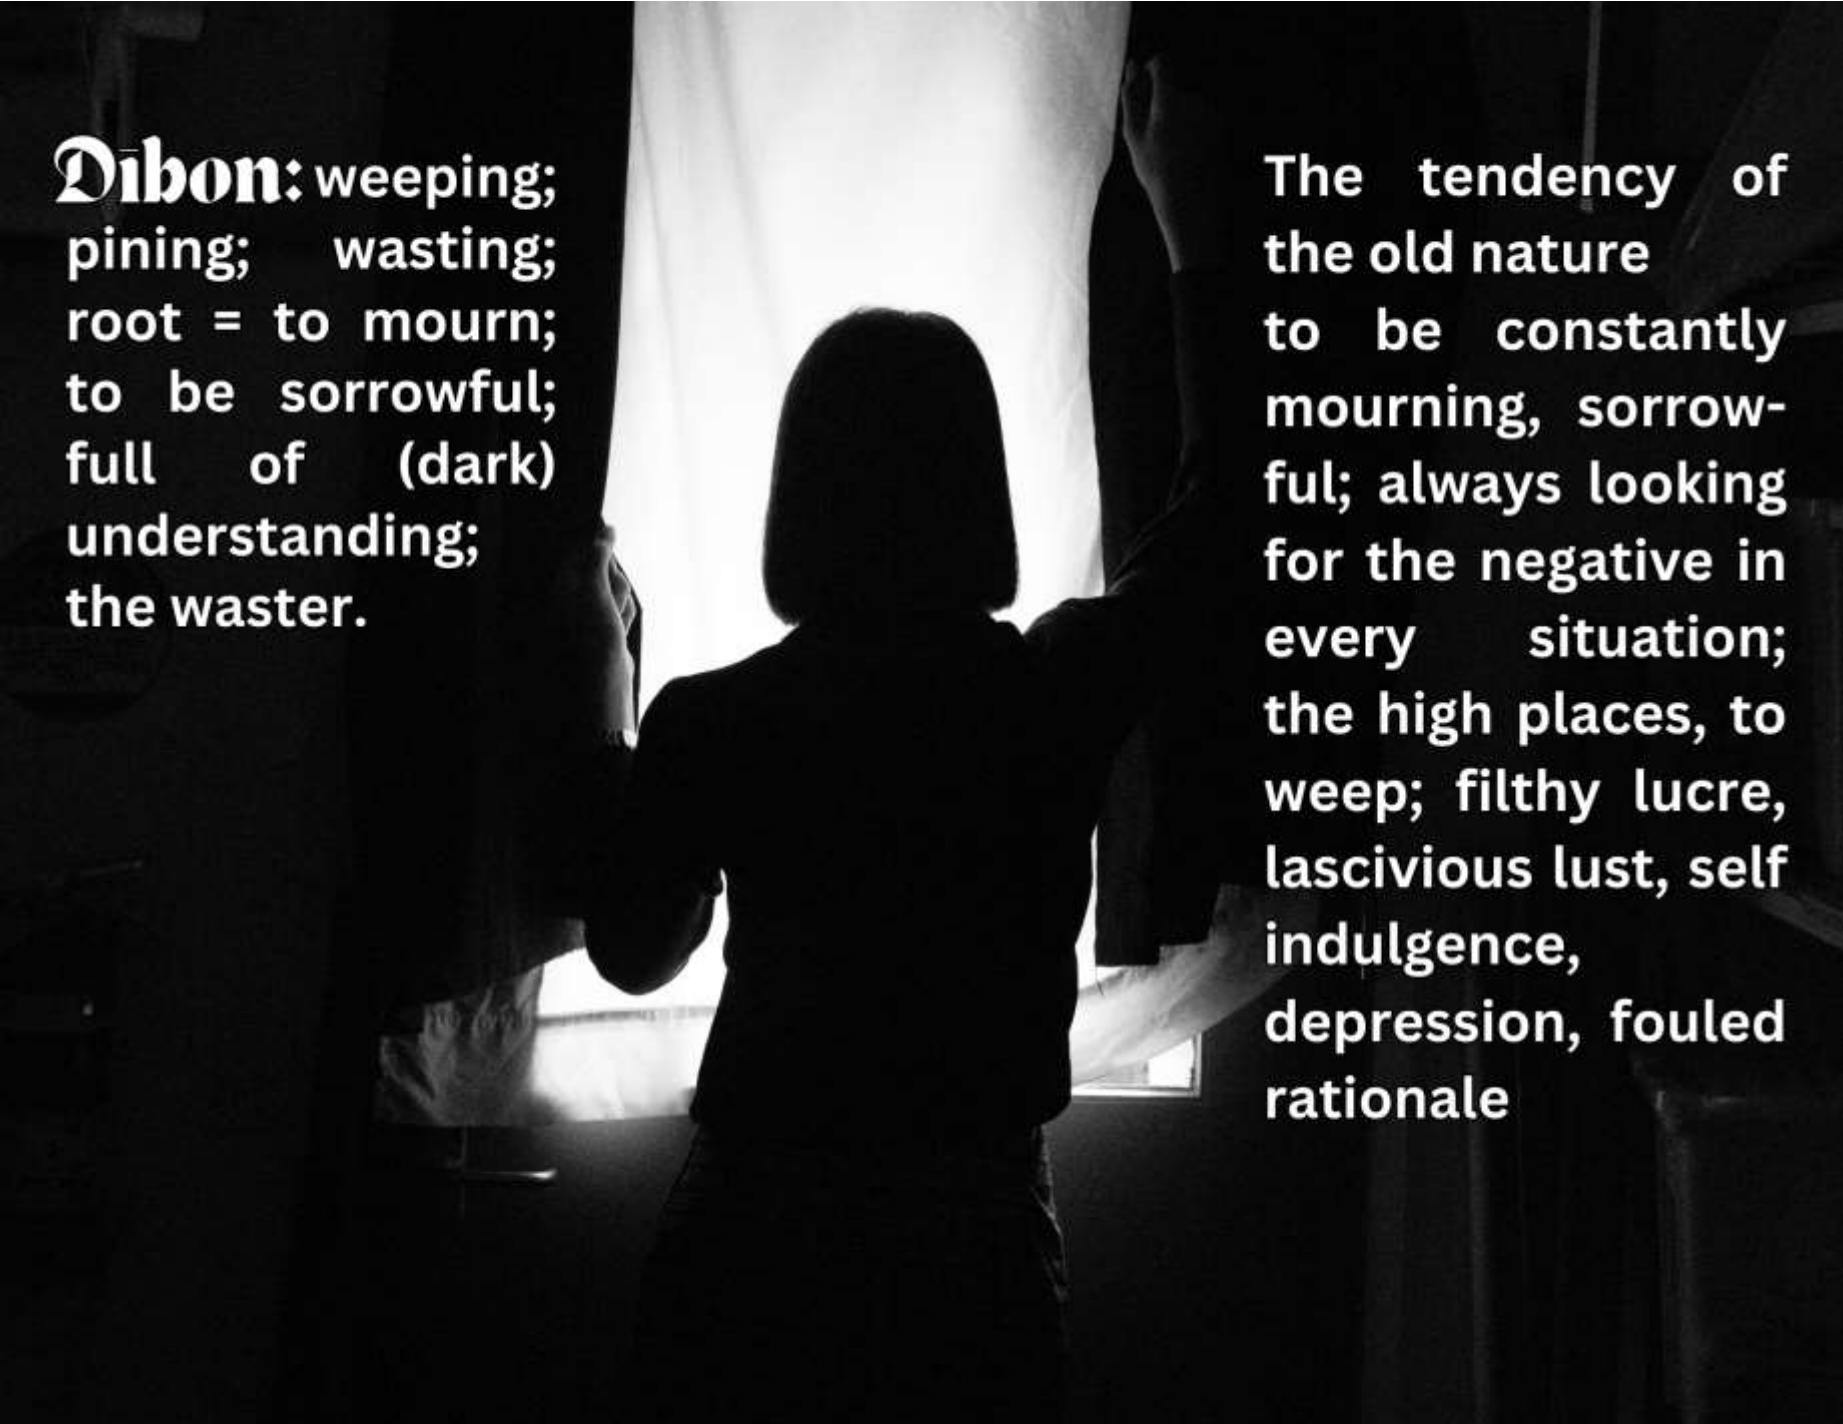

Baal is one of the great names of the Adversary in the OT and it literally means the possessor; the controller, meaning a place for Baal. Potential for possession

You can root out influences of the creation that have become too dominant in your life over God and over His Word.

And if you're honest in the privacy of your own soul in the night, you can realize you've been putting way too much time and attention into this sense-knowledge category, like making money or building a new house or even people you know.

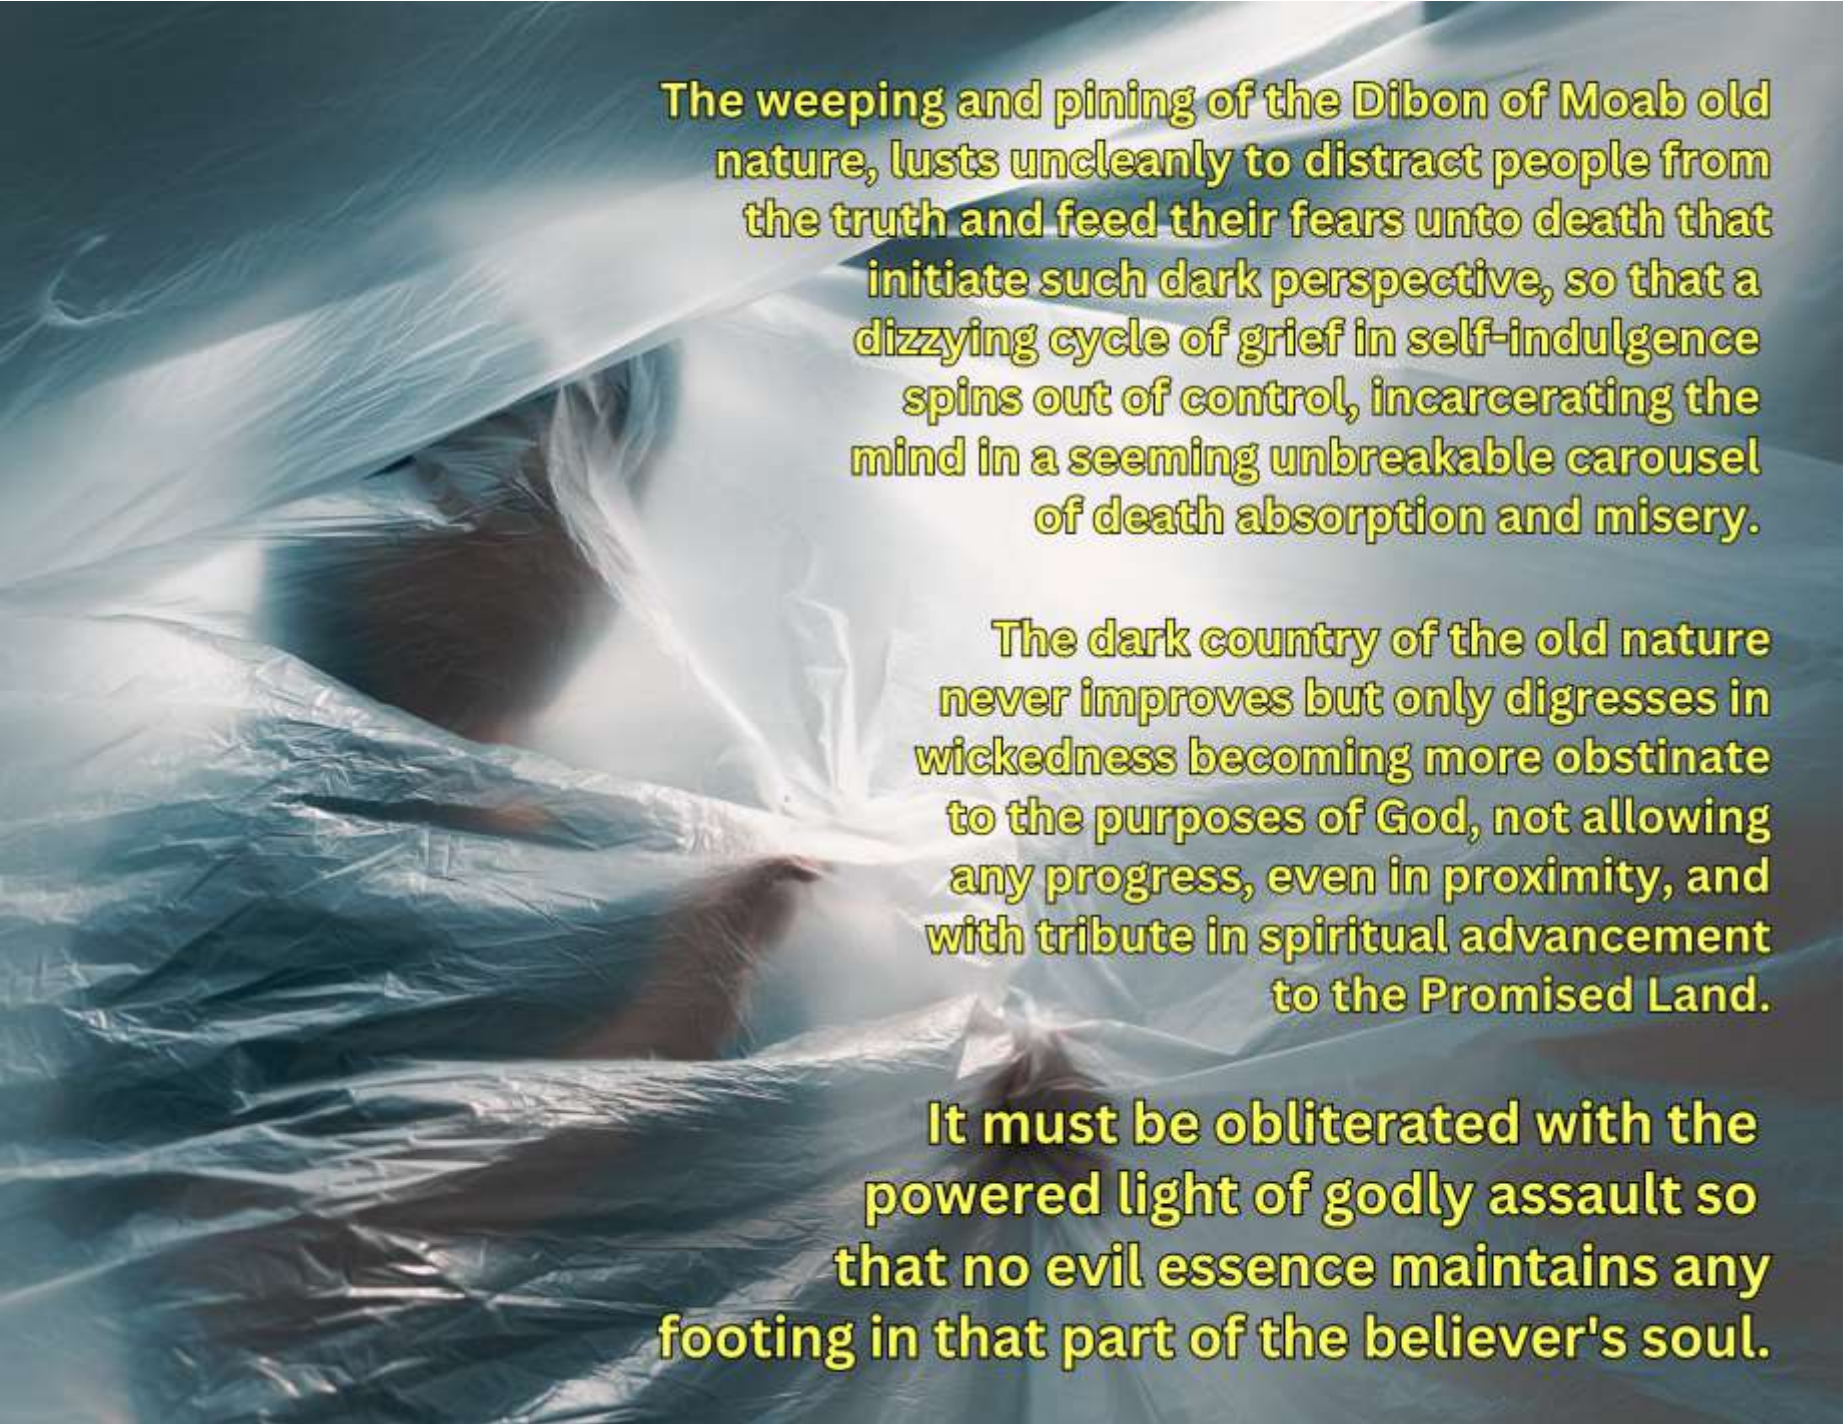

Well, "I'm forsaking my relationship with God, fine tuning it, by thinking I got to hold this guy's hand every waking hour of the day." You don't do that. You don't put people above God. You don't put your family above God. You don't put your so-called friends above God.

Dibon: weeping;
pining; wasting;
root = to mourn;
to be sorrowful;
full of (dark) understanding;
the waster.

The tendency of the old nature to be constantly mourning, sorrowful; always looking for the negative in every situation;
the high places, to weep; filthy lucre, lascivious lust, self indulgence, depression, fouled rationale

The weeping and pining of the Dibon of Moab old nature, lusts uncleanly to distract people from the truth and feed their fears unto death that initiate such dark perspective, so that a dizzying cycle of grief in self-indulgence spins out of control, incarcerating the mind in a seeming unbreakable carousel of death absorption and misery.

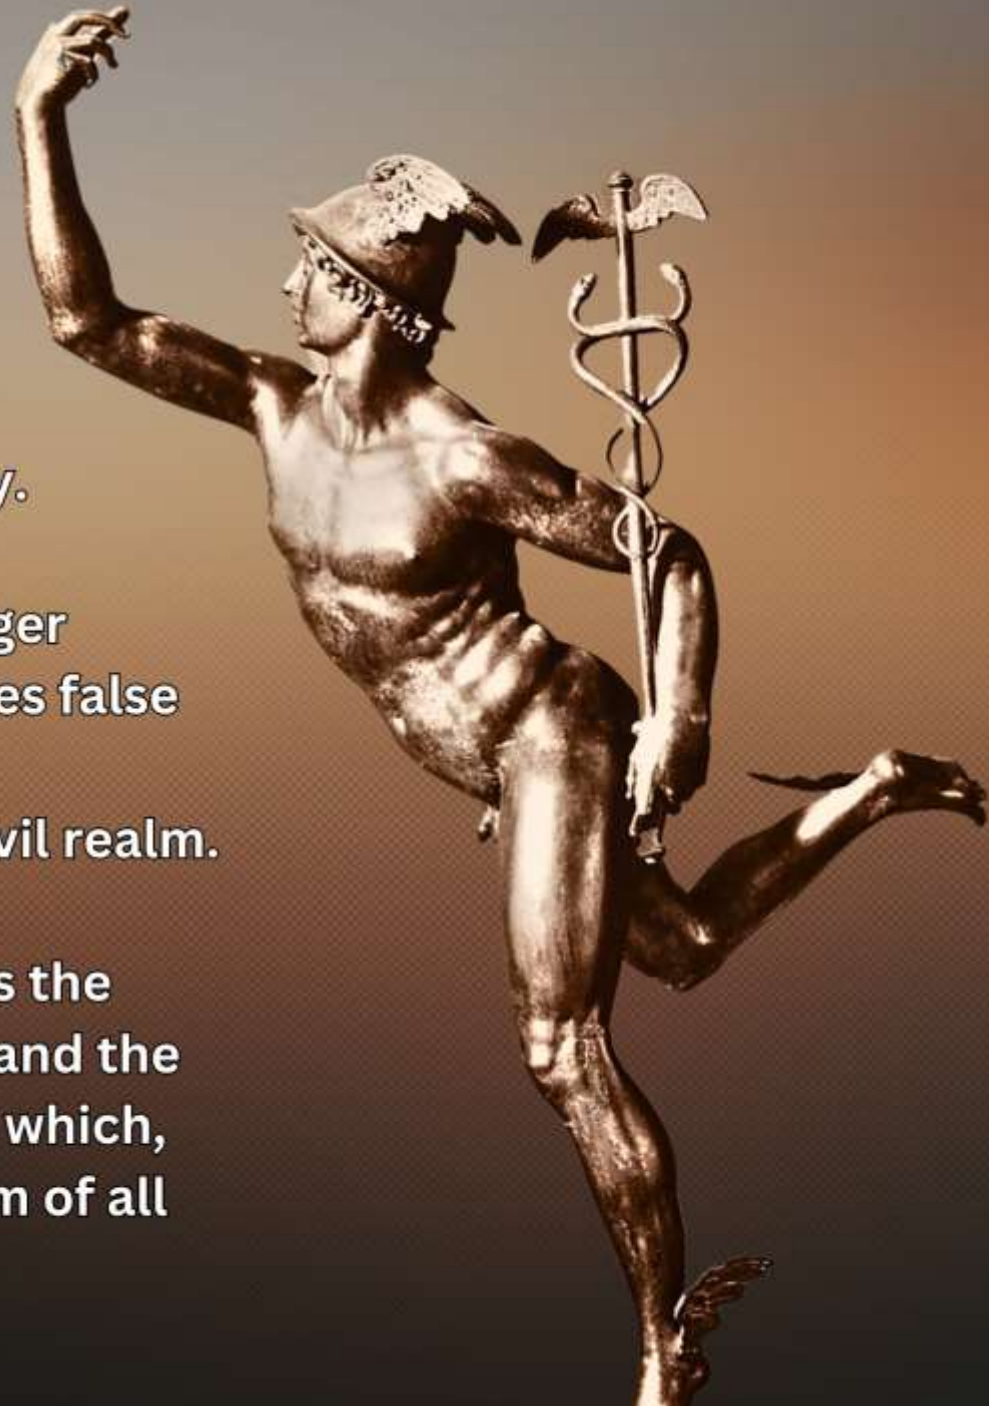

The dark country of the old nature never improves but only digresses in wickedness becoming more obstinate to the purposes of God, not allowing any progress, even in proximity, and with tribute in spiritual advancement to the Promised Land.

It must be obliterated with the powered light of godly assault so that no evil essence maintains any footing in that part of the believer's soul.

Nebo: Mercury;
interpreter; foreteller;
root = to speak; to prophecy; to sing; to be mad; a lofty place;
height; fertile; his prophecy.

Mercury, the message bringer of the pagan world, indicates false messages, counterfeit pronouncements of the devil realm.

The driving thrust of such is the filthy lucre, lascivious lust and the associated power it brings, which,
of course, is the root system of all destructive evil.

When one renounces the hidden things of shame, one disowns from himself personally the old nature lust to accept the myths of a time and season which cause one to handle the Word deceitfully.

Colossians 2:8 Beware lest any man (false minister, a “Hermogenes”) spoil you (beguile you from reward; carry you off as booty) through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ.

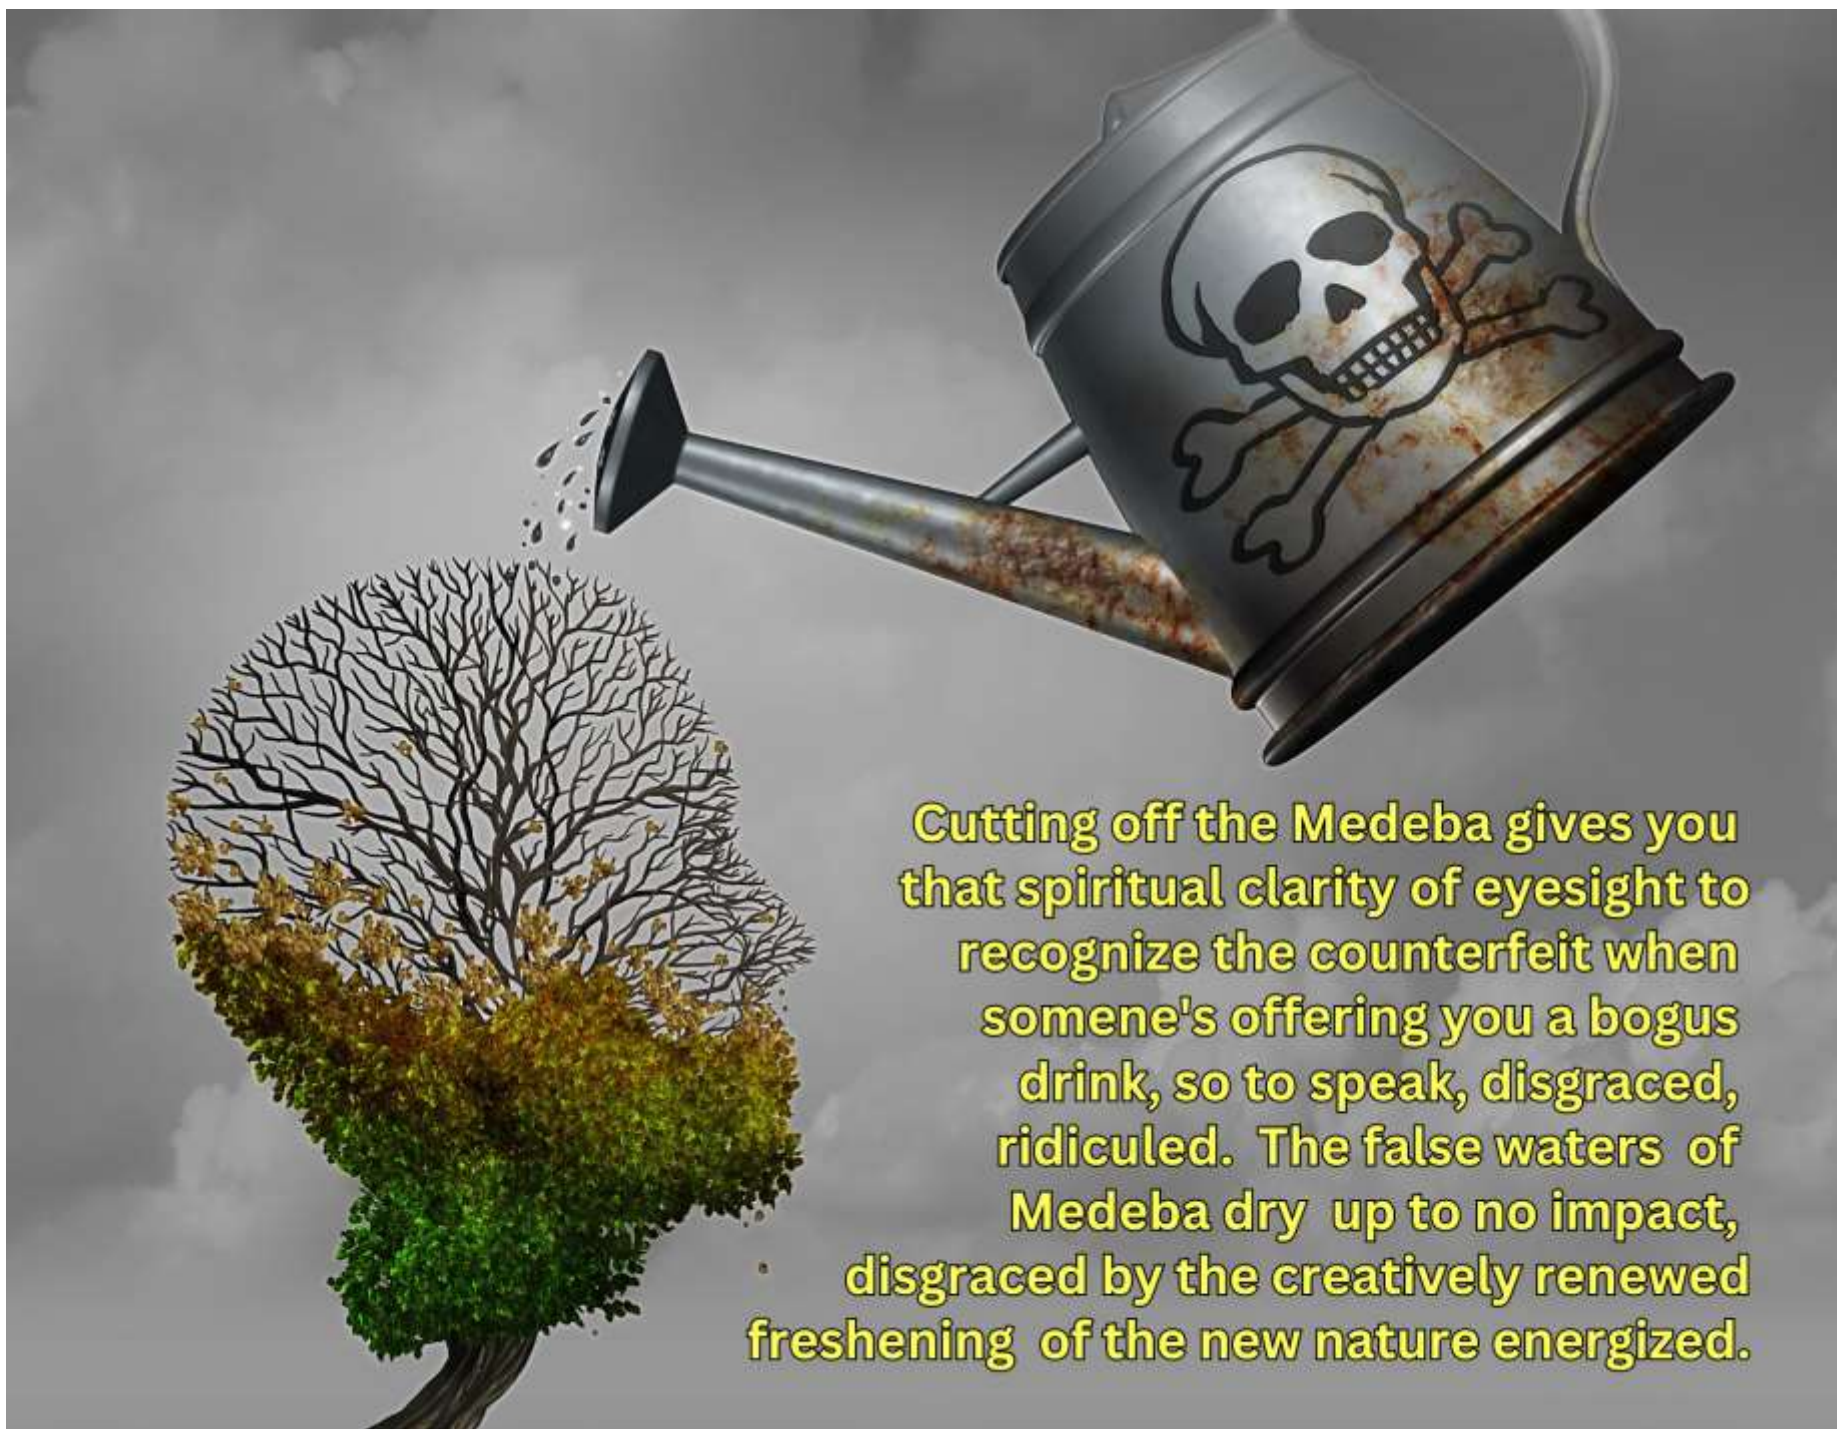

Medeba: flowing water; waters of rest (quiet)

Means venom; sewage; tainted, poisoned water; counterfeit peace - poison, something that looks like good, clean, fresh, nutrient water, but it's loaded with filth, loaded with fecal, loaded with sewage even though you can't see it with your senses eye.

Blind drunkenness especially regarding: one God; dead not alive; recognizing genuine ministers of Grace Administration and the manifestations.

Cutting off the Medeba gives you that spiritual clarity of eyesight to recognize the counterfeit when someone's offering you a bogus drink, so to speak, disgraced, ridiculed. The false waters of Medeba dry up to no impact, disgraced by the creatively renewed freshening of the new nature energized.

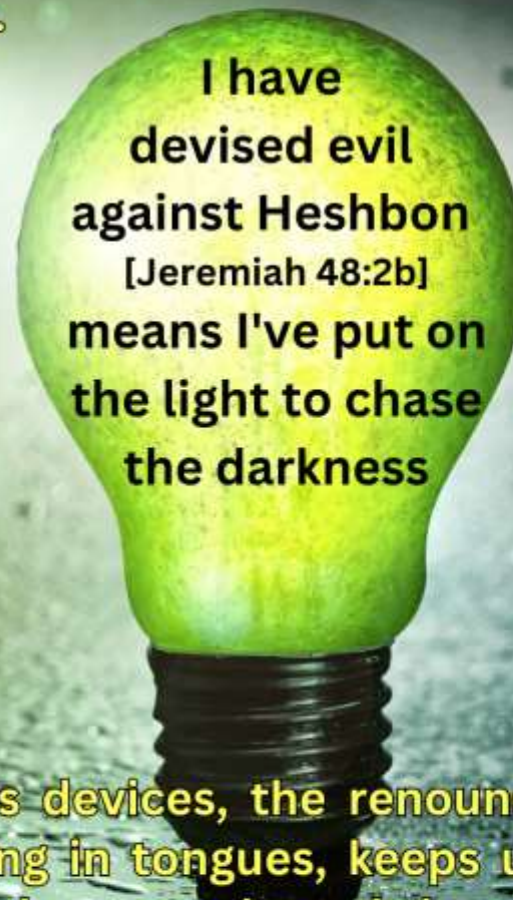

Heshbon: reason; device; counting; an account; devices and accounts and false reasoning - and these reasonings are literally strongholds against your own true interests and against your Heavenly Father.

An account and built upon spiritually with witchcraft [pharmakeia = to enchant by usage of drugs], witchcraft is the 6th work of the flesh in Galatians 5:20, can consider in association with narcotizing, spiritual manipulations of witchcraft in its divinations and sorceries, false reckonings.

Medeba-venom flowing to Heshbon-reasoning, associated with witchcrafts, pharmakeia, exhibits that the accounting or judgments of unbelievers in their value systems is all set in witchcrafts, divinations, sorceries.

The creative healing power of speaking in tongues ministers wholeness by attacking the inward evil nature that we all have in our body and soul, so that the wholeness of Jesus Christ may prevail in body and soul by that spirit manifested, for where the spirit of the Lord is energized into manifestation, there is liberty.

Not being ignorant of Satan's devices, the renouncing of these hidden things of darkness by speaking in tongues, keeps us spiritually fervent, refined, cleansed, and vigilantly strengthened that that no enchantment of chaotic bewitching may entice us to inner and utter destruction.

Elealeh:

whither god ascends;
the ascension of god

This dark fruit of concentrated evil aligns with the ascension in one's heart of an idol or false god of the wasteland, in hatred toward and enmity against the true Jehovah Elohim. As these cities of Moab bordered Israel with threat and temptation by their counterfeit resources, so the old nature lusts of the flesh and lusts of the eyes entice people away from the rich abundances in the "Promised Land" of the Truth.

These wastelands of thought and "ethic" can be built up in a soul so that one is completely cut off from the presence of the true God. He that saveth his life (for old nature selfish purposes, i.e. love of money), shall LOSE it. No matter how seemingly prolific, the judgments future will prove every one's work with fire, so that these old nature-based accomplishments, no matter how rewarded in the world's ideals of benevolence, perish with the using.

These reverberations of our inward parts oscillate unto destruction those spiritual walls of the old nature that endeavor to elevate enmities and hatreds that block one's relationship with the Heavenly Father, thus negating, disallowing, renouncing any dark ascensions (Elealeh) to false gods in the landscapes of one's heart.

The vibrations of air on strings makes the elegant soundings of the harp, so that this prophetic scripture of figurative emphasis proclaims the vibrations of celestial breathings created within us when we move our inner nature vocal chords to produce psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, poetically singing to create melody in our hearts to the Lord!

Jahaz: round depressed place, a place trodden down; troddings. Round depressed place indicates being surrounded, enclosed, in- carcerated with pressures of darkness so that one is trodden down from all sides of living. Dark illusion of no way out; empty, swept and garnished for invasion toward suicide and depression. Sink hole.

Fully FOCUSED

Certainly an old nature characteristic that needs to be epudiated, annihilated in Christ Jesus. The enemy's will to reduce the unprotected and undisciplined believer to such a state, speaks loudly so that to lay waste and destroy such darkness in one's life needs full focused priority

It is Satan's established finality of judging to defeat the believer on all sides, giving the dark illusion of no way out. Suicide and depression spirits find the Jahaz mind-set a welcoming house "empty, swept, and garnished" for invasion.

Zoar: smallness, little; the younger (root = to be small); bringing low. Zoar is also known as Bela/Belah = devourings, swallowing, destruction, consumption; (root = to swallow down; to devour greedily; to consume; to destroy; devouring. Reduces believers to immature; with a childlike of forgetting Elohim and His Word; cowards, revert back to previously defeated fears.

Zoar / Bela must be disowned spiritually so that these satanic devourings may be discomfitted unto no effect.

When inner evil festers unrefuted, then devils are essentially invited, even summoned to invade the hearts of the spiritually oiled, thus setting up the icon-attractions to which people resort or return in the times and seasons of agitation unto mental pressure.

Look what devilishness is renounced and refuted when one speaks in tongues with believing and love! No self-help philosophy can approach such personalized spiritual victory.

Eglath-Shelishiya:

The number “11” marks disorder, disorganization, imperfection, disintegration. Doctrine or practical chaos, narcotized mental state of chaotic thought existence. Victimized, victim mentality.

This 11th Moab-aggregate of old nature hidden shameful things is to be made prey, as a sacrificial heifer, to allow oneself to be victimized; one's self-worth in being preyed upon

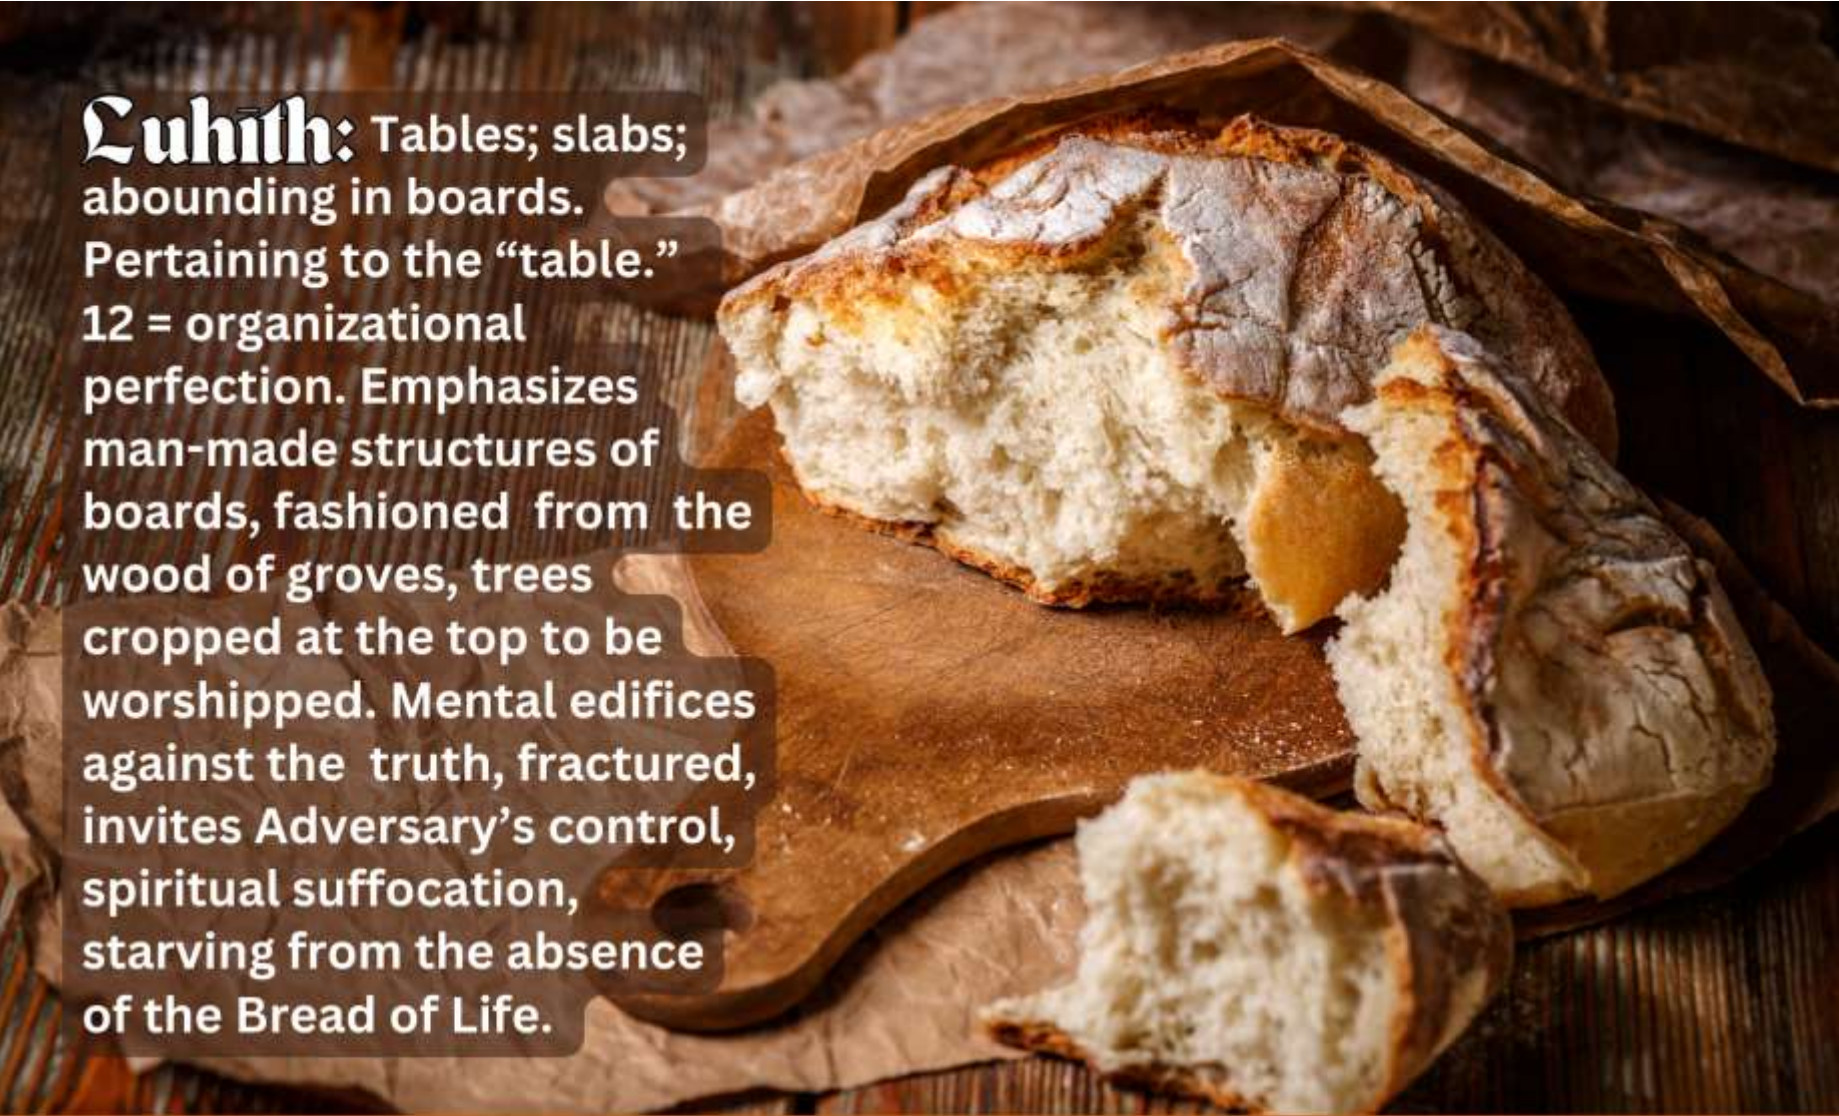

For those attacked by this disorienting vortex of dark elements, this Moabite conjuring darkness, the only true solution is to recognize and renew to God's way of escape [1 Corinthians 10:13], that ye may be able to bear it; to enter into the rock, Christ, and hide under the shadow of His wing in the dust of the natural world cleansing, to enter into thy chambers, the rich Word in the soul, to shut thy doors about thee

It [eleven] is the number which marks disorder, disorganization, imperfection and disintegration.

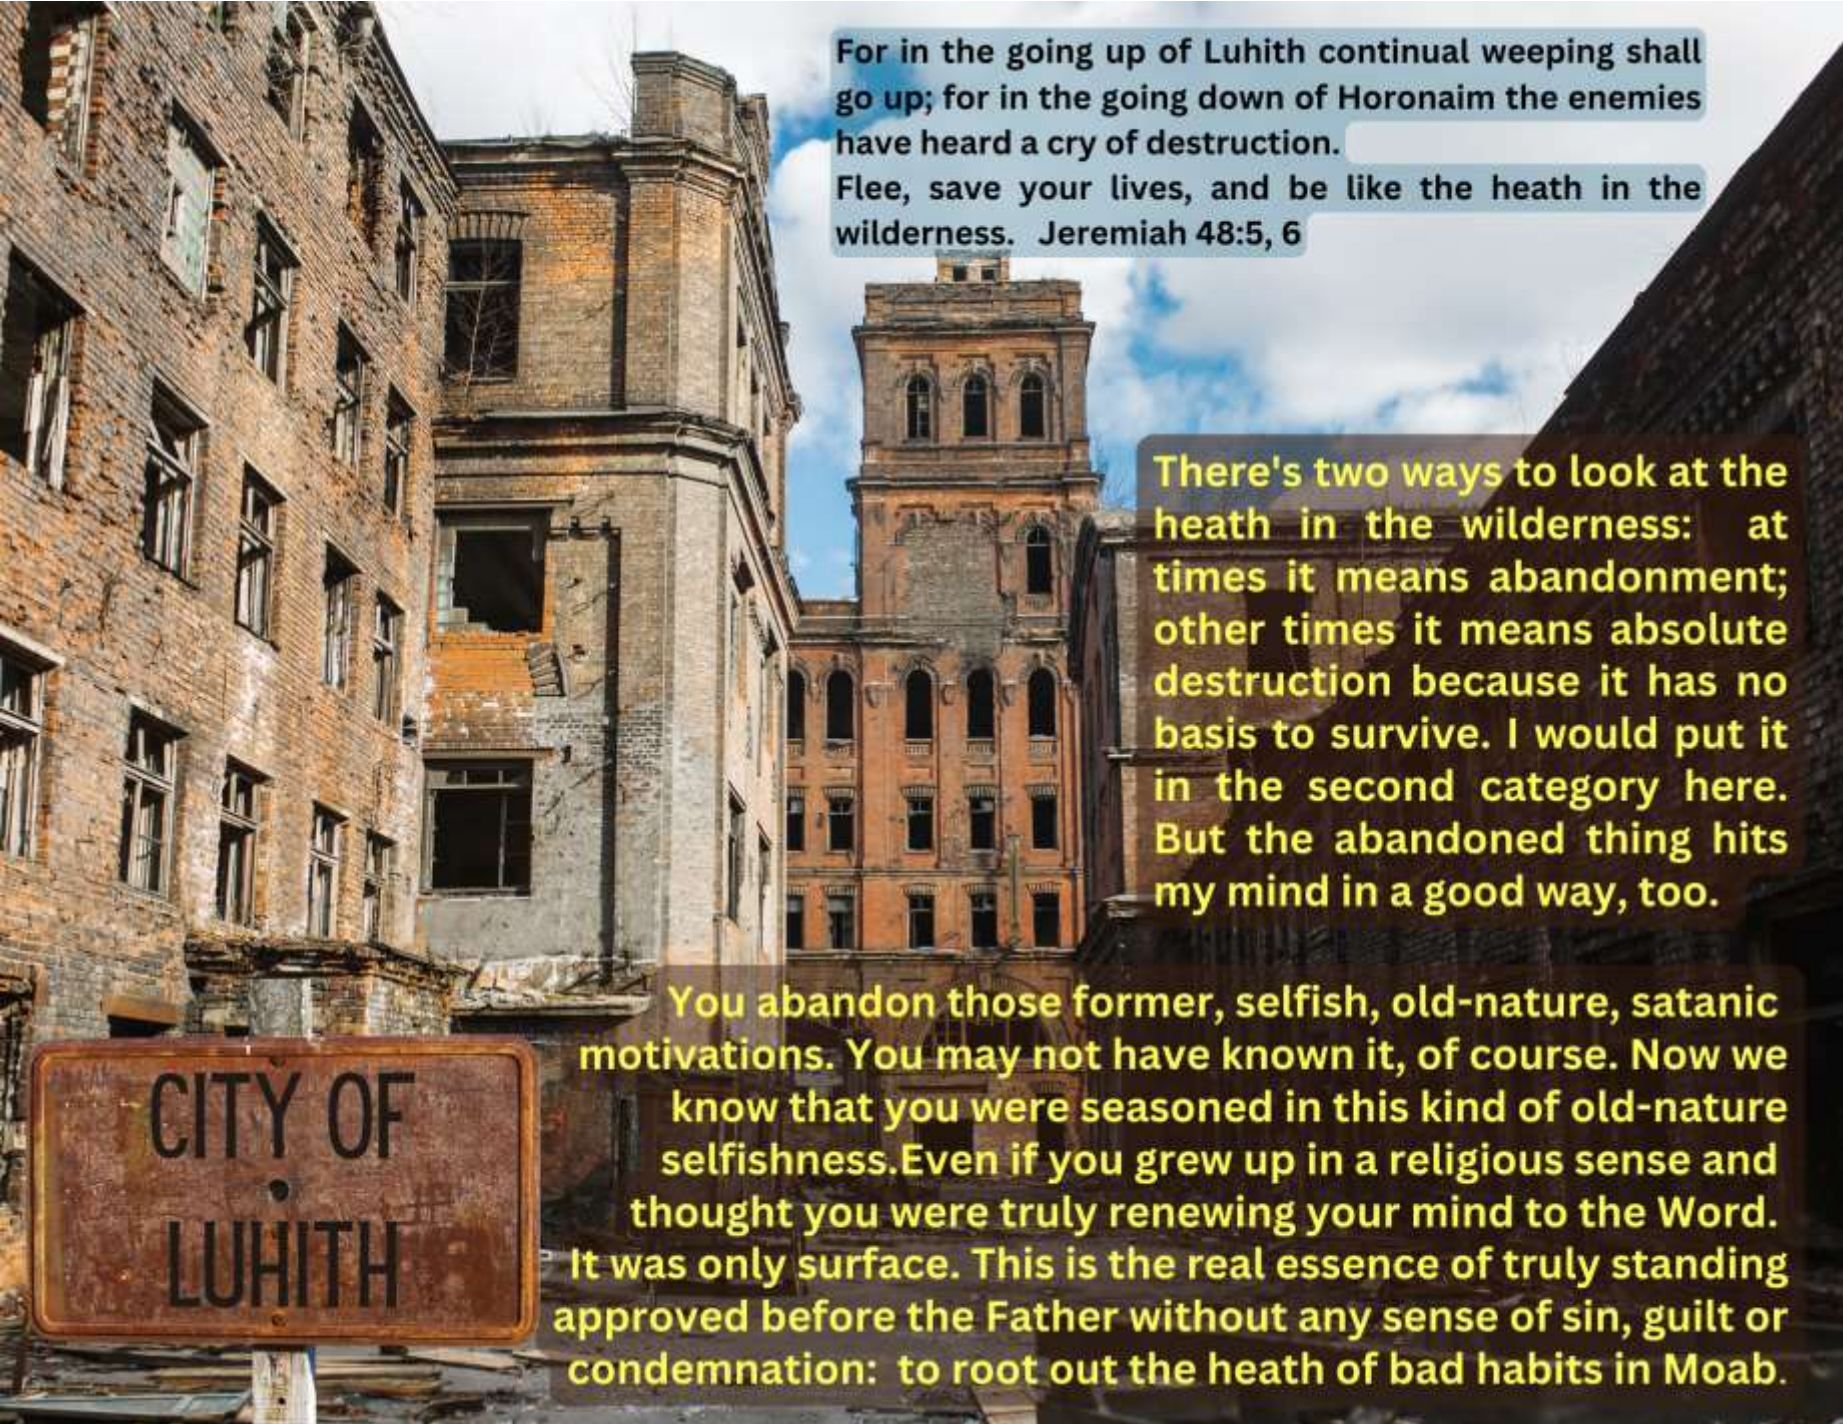

There are “headquarters” of chaos in the old nature whether doctrine or practical, that when renounced, open ordered pathways to new light and cleansing truth.

until this indignation may overpast for the prudent needs to remain silent, for it is an evil and harassing season. To weather such a chaotic storm of devils' wrath requires not putting out pearls of truth before swine for they would only use the occasion to attack and wrathfully rend, but to renounce the inner chaos and breathe deeply the Elohim resuscitations of holy cleansing.

Luhith: Tables; slabs; abounding in boards. Pertaining to the “table.” 12 = organizational perfection. Emphasizes man-made structures of boards, fashioned from the wood of groves, trees cropped at the top to be worshipped. Mental edifices against the truth, fractured, invites Adversary’s control, spiritual suffocation, starving from the absence of the Bread of Life.

Deceived by devil manipulatings, abused by their spiritual fantasies, people run to and fro from group to group, yet continue to starve from the absence of the Bread of Life [Amos 8:11, 12] and spiritually suffocate without the pure oxygen of energized holiness, causing dementia of the soul that blackens unto destruction.

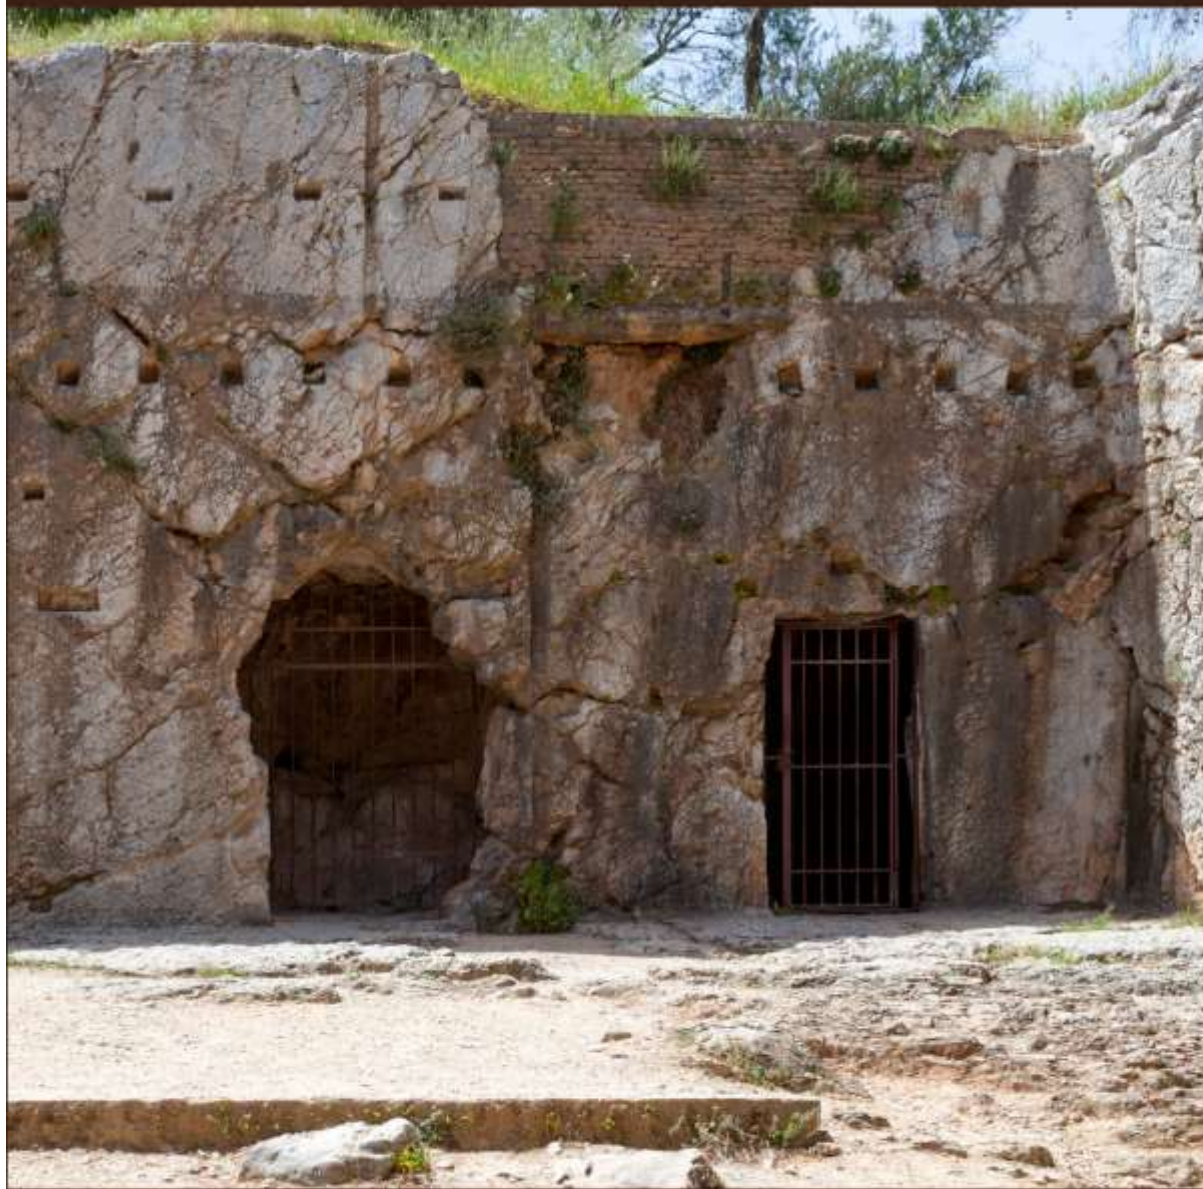

For in the going up of Luhith continual weeping shall go up; for in the going down of Horonaim the enemies have heard a cry of destruction.

Flee, save your lives, and be like the heath in the wilderness. Jeremiah 48:5, 6

There's two ways to look at the heath in the wilderness: at times it means abandonment; other times it means absolute destruction because it has no basis to survive. I would put it in the second category here. But the abandoned thing hits my mind in a good way, too.

You abandon those former, selfish, old-nature, satanic motivations. You may not have known it, of course. Now we know that you were seasoned in this kind of old-nature selfishness. Even if you grew up in a religious sense and thought you were truly renewing your mind to the Word. It was only surface. This is the real essence of truly standing approved before the Father without any sense of sin, guilt or condemnation: to root out the heath of bad habits in Moab.

CITY OF LUHITH

Horonaim:

grievous; vexatious. Two caverns. Double caves.

Mindset of full surrender; an imprisonment in the two (established, confirmed) caves of the senses-world.

To establish one's own imprisonment into the caverns of the cursed senses realm is grievous vexation to God.

Adamancy of unbelief; to refuse to renounce and rescind. Potentiality of hopelessness.

Here, Horonaim is brought up – spoil it, bring a great destruction on it when you renounce it by speaking in tongues and by going to the living Word, the revealed Word to document in detail your victories in that scenario.

Jeremiah 48:4

Moab is destroyed [claim it – destroyed, brought to naught, null and void, laid out]; her little ones have caused a cry to be heard

Even the progeny of Moab, the old nature has progeny if you let them develop. You know, you just can't renounce the old nature once and then forget about it. Now you can get adept in a category. Let's say you've been hit with a lot of accusation in a category of life, in an abominable, depressive, Horonaim way – you can work your mind, overcome it to where it hardly ever comes to your mind. But from time to time down the road little snippets (little progenies of that Horonaim) are going to try to build another wall. But you make those boogers cry, too, in destruction.

Nimrim: same as Bethnimrah = house of pure water. Clear waters. He was rebellious, leopardess. Water can appear clear, but carry infiltrating contaminants of disease. Nimrod means to “a great hunter in defiance of the Lord,” set in the feminine.

For the waters of Nimrim shall be desolate: for the hay is withered away, the grass faileth, there is no green thing. Isaiah 15:6

A close-up photograph of a hand wearing a blue nitrile glove. The hand is holding a clear glass test tube, which is being held over a dark, reflective surface of water. The water shows ripples and a clear reflection of the hand and the test tube. The background is a soft, out-of-focus green, suggesting an outdoor setting. The overall lighting is somewhat dim, with the blue of the glove and the clear of the test tube being the most prominent colors.

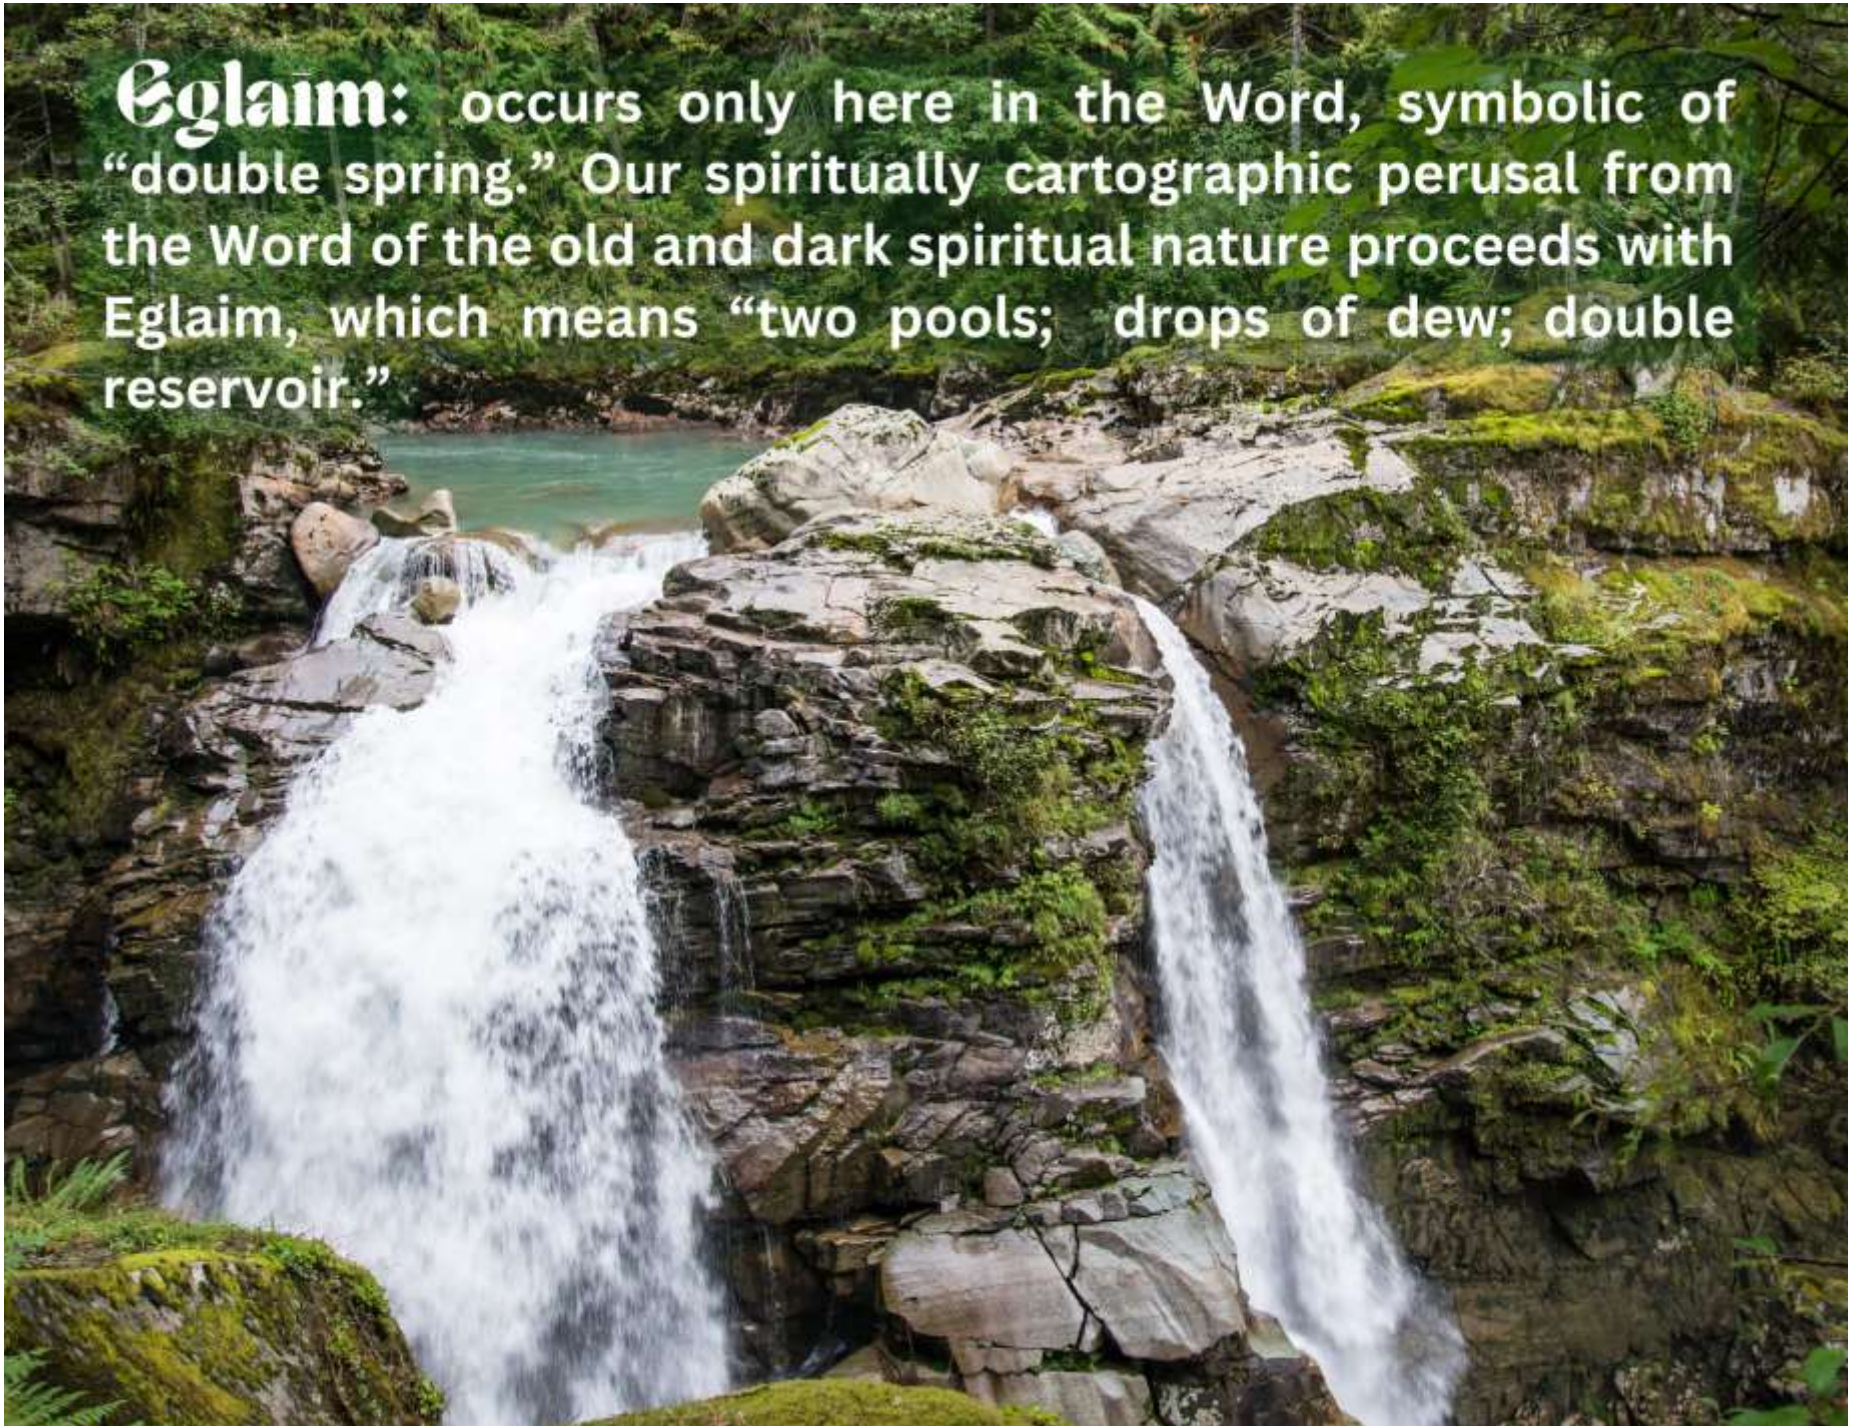

Jeremiah 48:34c, 35

... for the waters also of Nimrim shall be desolate.

Moreover I will cause to cease in Moab, saith the LORD, him that offereth in the high places, and him that burneth incense to his gods.

If indeed we worship things of the senses world (which to some extent we've all been through this) worshipped skills, worshipped idolatries (either spiritual, religious) or even in cultural success – many ways, that's the way these false gods hide. But no more does this affect us. We stamp our foot on the head of that kind of thinking, “that offereth in the high places, and him that burneth incense to his gods.”

Eglaim: occurs only here in the Word, symbolic of “double spring.” Our spiritually cartographic perusal from the Word of the old and dark spiritual nature proceeds with Eglaim, which means “two pools; drops of dew; double reservoir.”

Isaiah 15: 8, 9

For the cry is gone round about the borders of Moab; the howling thereof unto Eglaim, and the howling thereof unto Beerelim.

For the waters of Dimon shall be full of blood: for I will bring more upon Dimon, lions upon him that escapeth of Moab, and upon the remnant of the land.

Eglaim, the fifteenth agglomeration of dishonesty of the old nature, occurs only here in the Word, symbolic of a “double spring” in the wasteland of Moab, a collection of old nature turmoil that howls in agonizing defeat when the Light of energized truth stirs dynamically within the believing one.

Beerelim: well of the mighty ones, well or fountain of the heroes, the well or fountain. of the gods. Eglaim and Beerelim work off of and in tandem with each other. Celebrities, politicians, famous worldly ones.

So, what is this? This is the susceptibility of your old nature and mine in its lusting – the susceptibility we have in our Moabite old nature to be swayed and influenced and tricked by the men and women born of the seed of the serpent. Because that’s the mighty ones of the earth, those are the heroes of a senses realm. Those are the fountains of the false gods, the spirit realm portrayed forth.

For the cry is gone round about the borders of Moab; the howling thereof unto Eglaim, and the howling thereof unto Beerelim. Isaiah 15:8

These two collections of wickedness (Eglaim and Beerelim) work off of and in tandem with each other to amplify the dark prowess of these gargoylesque aptitudes of the old nature.

Unrefuted, the combining chaos of these traits rumbles up as an underground geyser of lies to the Father, yourself and others. The doubled (body and soul) wells of evil that lurk to erupt and seep and soak, may only be dried up and eradicated by the “washing of the water of the Word” into the capabilities of Jesus Christ by living water activated in us to be more than conquerors.

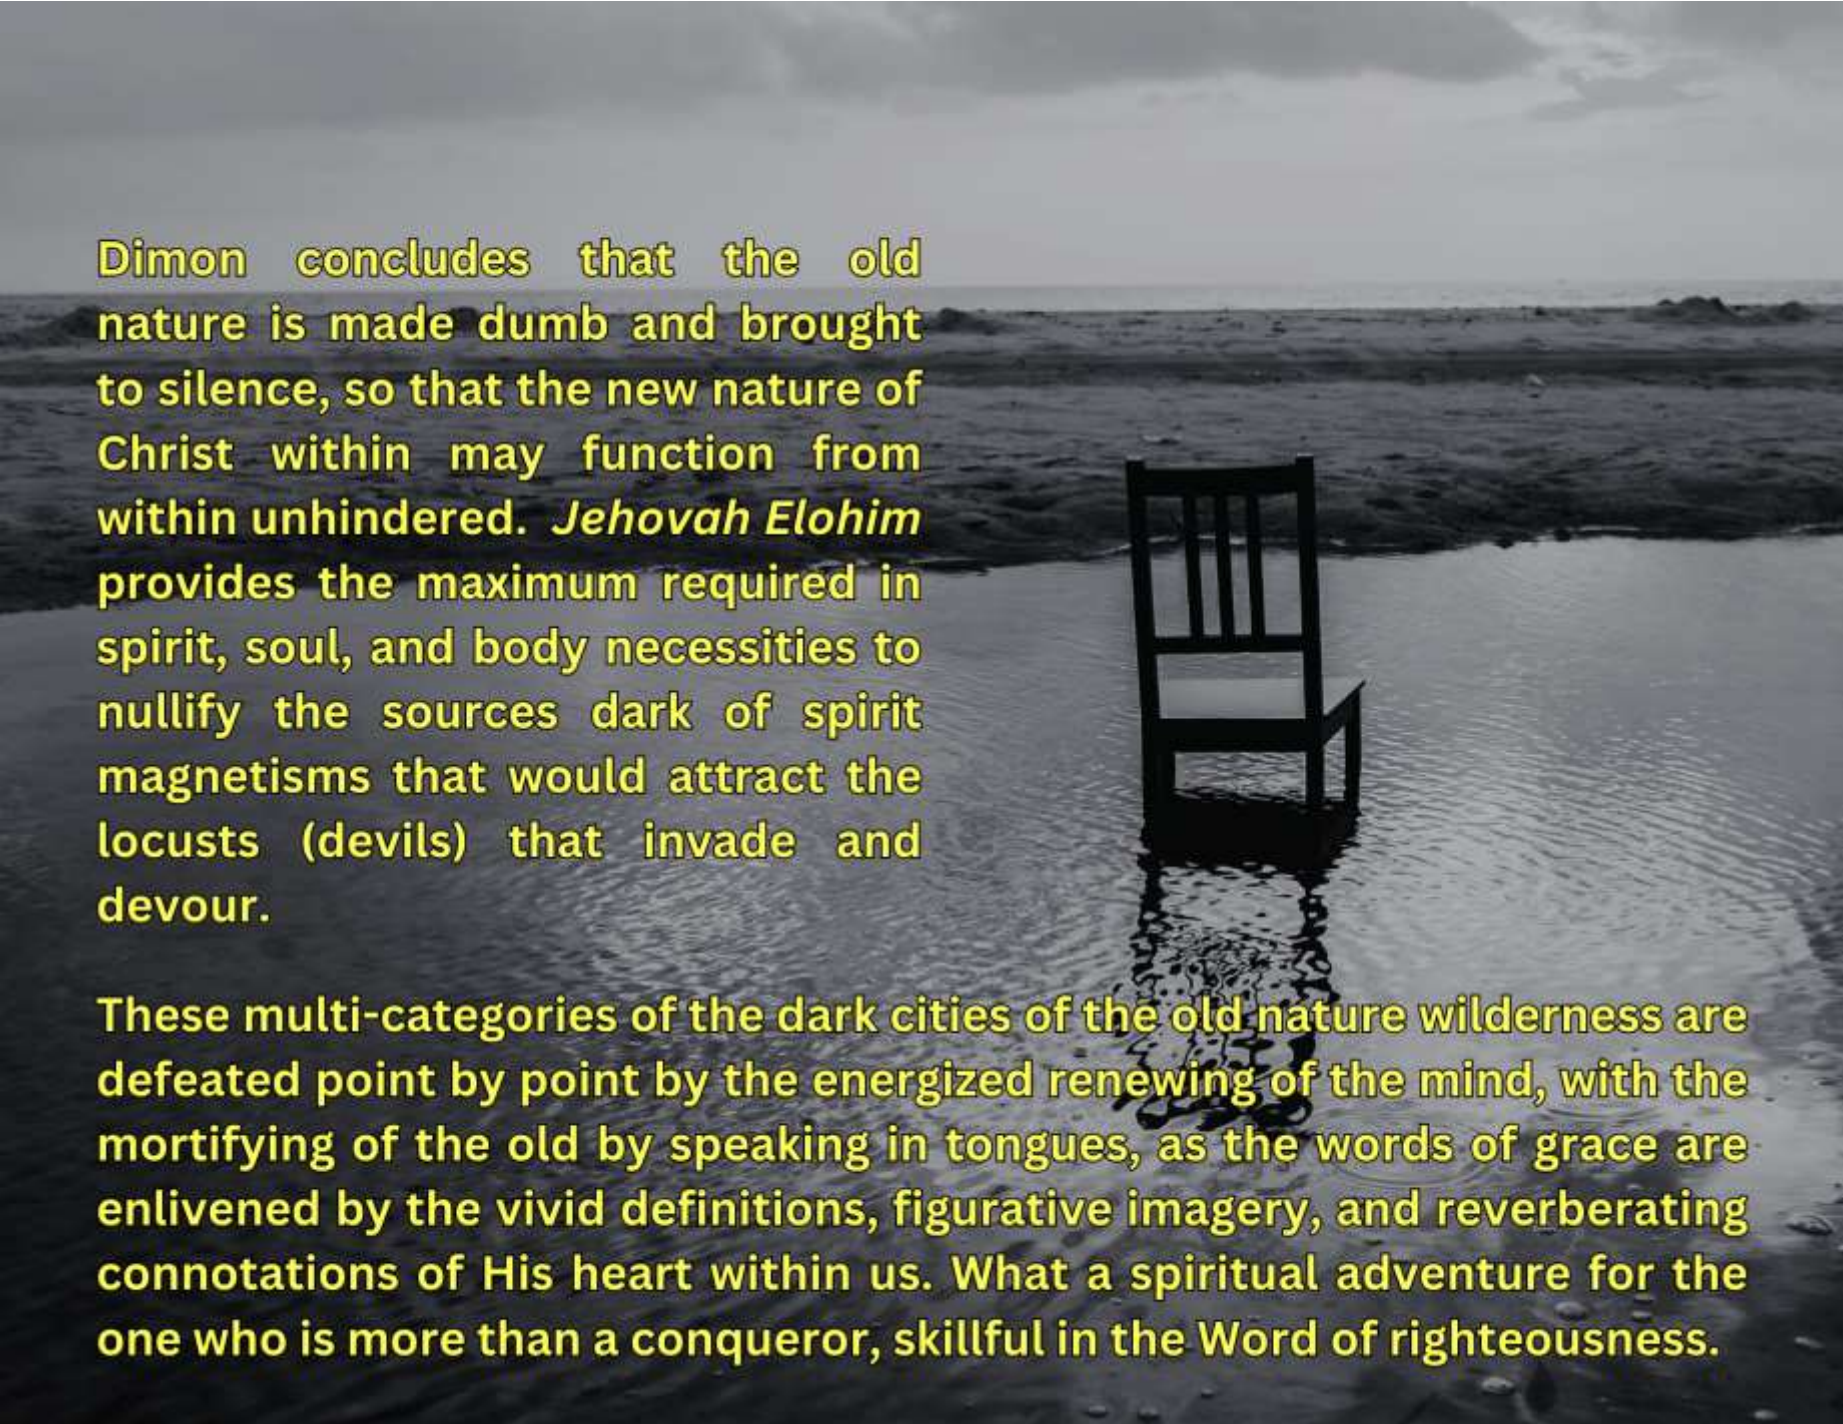

Dimon: means secure fast; undisturbed silence (root = to be silent; to be dumb); the quieter; abundance of blood. Young's Concordance defines it as "river bed."

"Secured fast" would be old nature traits so deeply embedded as to be there for life without faithful excavations of speaking in tongues and the Word dwelling richly.

"Undisturbed silence" is indicative of secrecy so subtle as to not be recognized but by the Father.

"Abundance of blood" indicates prolific old nature contamination, which only speaking continually in renouncing tongues would obliterate effects thereof.

Dimon concludes that the old nature is made dumb and brought to silence, so that the new nature of Christ within may function from within unhindered. Jehovah Elohim provides the maximum required in spirit, soul, and body necessities to nullify the sources dark of spirit magnetisms that would attract the locusts (devils) that invade and devour.

These multi-categories of the dark cities of the old nature wilderness are defeated point by point by the energized renewing of the mind, with the mortifying of the old by speaking in tongues, as the words of grace are enlivened by the vivid definitions, figurative imagery, and reverberating connotations of His heart within us. What a spiritual adventure for the one who is more than a conqueror, skillful in the Word of righteousness.

M O A B (Isaiah 15)

Arid, dark nature; wasteful, wasteland, waste, nothingness – [Gr. phaulos]

Each aggregate includes all the definitive force of the previous, amplifies unto multiplying
